YOUTH IS HIT IN SHOULDER BY .22 BULLET

Accident Occurs at White Mud Creek on Saturday

Struck by a bullet from a .22 rifle held in the hands of Billy Graham, 16, who was shooting at a rock in White Mud Creek Saturday afternoon, John Schurman, 16, 11042 87th Avenue, was rushed to the University hospital where doctors extracted the missile from his left shoulder. He will recover.

The accident occurred when the bullet glanced off the rock and struck the Schurman boy in the left shoulder, half an inch from an artery. His chum applied first aid, wrapping up the wound with the aid of torn clothing and then ran to a neighboring farm house where a wagon was secured.

The boys had been on a camping trip at White Mud Creek during the afternoon.

DREDGE SINKS; FOUR MISSING

NEW YORK, May 7.—The 2000 ton government dredge Navesink with a crew of 47 men sank off Flifton, Staten Island, about four o'clock this morning, after colliding with the Lamport & Holt liner Swinburne. Four men were reported missing.

Twenty-five were taken to the marine hospital on Staten Island, where all but two remained for treatment.

Eighteen others swam ashore, it was reported, including chief Engineer Clubert, in charge of dredging operations.

Calgarian's Body Found Upon Roof

CALGARY, May 7.—After a wide search for Edwin Claude Brumley, who disappeared April 23, his body was found Sunday morning on the roof of Simmons Ltd., of which he was manager in Calgary.

Owing to the length of time the body had lain on the roof, exposed to the elements, it was impossible to determine the cause of death. The stomach will be sent to Edmonton for examination of the contents.

Deceased was 29 years of age. He served during the Great War in the Royal Air Force. As a result of injuries he received during the war, he suffered frequent lapse of mmory.

A meeting of the Northern Alberta Game and Fish Protective League will be held at the Macdonald hotel, Wednesday at 8 p.m. Many important matters have tot be discussed. This is probably the last meeting to be held this spring.

RUMANIA IN UPROAR WHEN MOBS MARCH

Prince Carol Tries to Fly From Britain but Is Detained

LONDON, May 7.—The Press association states that the British authorities learning Saturday afternoon that two Imperial Airway machines had been chartered, ostensibly to fly with Prince Carol to Rumania, took action to prevent the flight.

The reason given for this by the Press Association was that the British authorities were not satisfied that Carol possessed the necessary papers to land in Rumania.

Demand Refused

BUCHAREST, May 7.—The regency today refused the demand voiced by 200,000 peasants meeting at Albajulia yesterday that the government of Vintela Bratianu resign.

Julio Maniu, leader of the peasants, who brought the demand to Bucharest, was informed that the regency saw no occasion for demanding the resignation.

In the face of a negative reply, the Peasants' party may now adopt passive resistance towards the present government, including the non-payment of taxes.

At Albajulia, peasants were marching on Bucharest today to demand a change of government.

After the Sunday meeting of 200,000 peasants and laborers had sworn to do everything possible to remove the present government and had broken up in confusion, the crowd lingered for two hours while several leaders made fiery speeches. Then two long columns started a five-day hike for Bucharest.

Ten fighting planes flew over Albajulia surveying the ranks of the peasants as they trudged toward the capital.

It was stated that each peasant was participating in the march on his own initiative and without the authorization of Julio Maniu, leader of the Nationalist Peasant party. The march on Bucharest was regarded as a popular manifestation and, since the marchers were unarmed, no bloodshed was expected.

BRITISH GOLF TOURNEY OPENS

SANDWICH, England, May 7.—The 36-hole qualification play for the British open golf championship got under way today in a stiff breeze from the Channel which made scoring difficult and early cards were well up in the seventies.

George Duncan, veteran Briton, had a 73, and E. R. Whitcombe, another Briton, a 75, which compared favorably with other cards turned in for the first 18 holes.

John McHugh, San Francisco amateur, playing on the Prince's course, turned in 77. So bad was the wind there that among the first dozen finishing more than half were in the eighties.

Joshua Crane, the veteran amateur of Boston, playing over the St. George's course, could do no better than a 91.

Wild Bill Mehlhorn, prominent United States golfer, returned a fine 72 for the first 18 holes of the 36-hole qualification play, and with half the returns in was leading the field.

E. R. Whitcombe, Briton, had a 75. Gene Sarazen, with a 77, slipped on several rather short putts, while John McHugh, of San Francisco, led the amateurs with a 77. Lester Hartley, English amateur, had a 78, while Dr.

Dog Killed by Wire; Owner Asks Damages

Claiming that a purebred terrier dog was killed by a dangling live wire after city electric light poles came down in the May day blizzard which struck Edmonton on Tuesday last, Walter McDonald of 62nd street is asking the city to pay him $50 damages for the loss of the animal.

According to the letter reaching the city from legal representatives of the claimant, the dog was killed at 119th avenue and 66th street, and the claim is made that the poles which snapped were defective.

The matter has been referred to the claims agent for investigation.

Boat Overturns and Two Anglers Drown

MONTREAL, May 7.—Two men lost their lives and a third had a narrow escape from a similar fate when the boat in which they were fishing in the St. Lawrence river here Sunday capsized. The accident occurred when one of the fishermen stood up in the boat to haul in his line.

The victims were: Arthur Plante, 50, and Alfred Jodoin, 28, both of this city.

C. C. Avard, M.A., Sackville, N.B., editor of the Sackville Tribune and the Busy East Monthly, will be the speaker at the Canadian Club luncheon at the Macdonald Wednesday at 12:30 noon. His subject will be "Impressions of Western Canada."

Baby Buffalo Born at Zoo Proves Female

The baby buffalo which arrived at the Zoological Gardens last Thursday afternoon is a female, Dr. F. A. McCord, official veterinarian to the Zoo announced Saturday.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Buffalo had guarded the little stranger jealously since its arrival and allowed no one to approach. By advancing with a large quota of supporters and carrying out an enveloping movement, Mr. and Mrs. Buffalo were outwitted.

Its mission accomplished, the party retired in good order and without casualties.

The only remaining question is the name for the young 'un.

At present "Alberta" is leading the field, but any further suggestion should be despatched with all due speed to Miss E. L. Holmes, secretary of the Exhibition Association.

HEALTH CLINIC OFF TODAY FOR PEACE RIVER

Under the supervision of Dr. Roderick T. Washburn, medical superintendent of the University hospital, the first of the two health clinics to be sent out this season by the provincial government will leave today for the Peace River country.

The first stop will be made on Tuesday at High Prairie, Grand Prairie, Peace River and many other points in the north will be visited, the whole program calling for about one month to complete.

In addition to Dr. Washburn the clinic will consist of Dr. Heber Jamieson, examining physician; Dr. A. E. Haycock, dentist to provincial institutions and three nurses. Only the most modern and up-to-date equipment will be used.

Following the return of the clinic from the north, a second party will be sent out to visit the southern section of the province. This also will be in charge of Dr. Washburn.

Last year only one clinic was sent out, but it met with such success that this year the second one was decided upon.

EMPLOYES OF BEER PARLORS PLAN STRIKE

Will Cease Work Tuesday Unless Higher Wages Are Paid

Beverage dispensers in local beer parlors may go on strike on Tuesday at noon. Indications today are that demands for wage increases made by the dispensers through officials of their union will not be met, and in that event the men declare they will strike. They have given the hotelmen until noon tomorrow to consider the situation.

Original demands put forward by the union dispensers were $40 a week for tapmen and $35 a week for floor men. These demands have now been modified to $36 a week for tapmen and $30 a week for floormen. The increase would be $1 a day for both tapmen and floor men, as at the present time the tapmen receive $30 a week and the floormen $24 a week.

So far the hotel proprietors are standing fast by their refusal to make any concessions, only one hotel—the Richelieu—having signed up. Others after meeting union officials have flatly refused to negotiate.

Ultimatum Issued

"As far as we are concerned, the ultimatum is out. Any hotel that does not sign up by noon on Tuesday will see the crew of the beer parlors walking out," was the statement made by officials at the Cooks and Waiters Union headquarters this morning. "We have done everything that can be done to get our demands met in a reasonable manner, but we have not been given any co-operation from the other side, and if the demands now made are not met, the strike will be on."

About 85 men in the union will be affected.

Cooks and waiters, belonging to the same union, received the demands made by them last week, although a strike had been threatened for Friday. The majority of the cafe and restaurant owners signed up before the time limit expired, and the union officials reported a one hundred per cent signing up over the week-end.

JUDGE SCORES FEDERAL LAWS ABOUT ALIENS

TORONTO, May 7—Chief Justice Meredith, in allowing four applications at Osgoode Hall for naturalization Saturday, intimated that he had applied to the secretary of state for assistance in arriving at a decision affecting these aliens, and that the minister had not responded to his request.

His lordship comments on the "method of administration of the very unsatisfactory state of the law and practice respecting naturalization of aliens in Canada."

The present conditions, to briefly state his lordship's comment, is that an alien may apply to any judge, court, authority or person as specified in the act, for a decision as to his suitability to be granted the papers.

Then the applicant may or may not be granted the papers, as the secretary of state so desires, and the latter may refuse them even though judge, court, etc., may have decided favorably for the applicant.

The secretary of state need decide only on the requisite qualifications, namely five years residence in Canada, and "adequate knowledge" of French and English, and an intention to reside in his majesty's dominions.

"Who is a fit and proper person to be naturalized? Nothing in the act gives any answer to this question. It is not a question of law, nor of common sense. It is really a question of policy of the country in which naturalization is sought; and as this dominion has the matter so completely in the discretion of the secretary of state, it seemed natural and proper to me to look to him for knowledge. So far that looking to me has been in vain."

Legion to Assist in Tour of Grads

The Edmonton Branch of the Canadian Legion is to assist the Commercial Grads basketball team on their trip to compete in the Olympic games, to be held in Holland this year.

ORDERS CHINA TO STOP FIGHT IN SHANTUNG

Nippon Sends Ultimatum Gen. Chiang—Tsinan Is Bombed

SHANGHAI, May 7.—Today's despatches from Tsinan said the atmosphere there was tense, but the situation quiet.

The northerners have been bombing Tsinan spasmodically, and one of their planes crashed yesterday, killing its occupants.

TOKIO, May 7.—The general staff and other high war and navy officials today proposed that Japan shall hold Shantung province and its railways until present difficulties over Tsinan are solved. It was also proposed that the fighting factions of the Chinese be ordered to cease warfare in Shantung.

It was stated that sanction of the cabinet will be sought for the sending of all infantry units, including the divisional headquarters of the Nagoyo division to Tsingtao, Shantung, to administer the railways.

Eight destroyers were ordered today from the fleet at Kura to the Yangtse river, seven from the Sassebo fleet to Swatow and Canton, and four from the naval harbor at Maizuru to Shanghai.

General Kazushige Ugaki, former minister of war, was appointed commander-in-chief of the whole Shantung expeditionary force, which will number 13,000 men, including the soldiers already there.

Japan Holds Key

PEKIN, May 7.—With the rifles at Tsinan silent and the warfare at least temporarily stilled, the whole orient today anxiously awaited answer to its query: "What will Japan do?" The chief attention is now focussed on

General Seeding Operations In Peace to Start This Week

Late Snowfalls of April Expected to Do More Good Than Harm to Crops

Exclusive to Bulletin

BEAVER LODGE, Alta., May 7.—The following seeding report has been obtained from the experimental farm at this point:

Seeding in this neighborhood commenced on April 27 on the farm of Albert Miller, half a mile south of town. It did not become general, however, until the first week of May, with a good week of weather enabling farmers to work down much land and sow considerable acreage of wheat.

On the experimental station seeding commenced April 30 and progressed apace.

Meteorological records show that April of this year was exceptional in regard to the heavy snowfall in the Peace River country, according to Hon. George Hoadley, minister of agriculture.

While slightly more than two inches fell last month, an average struck for the last 12 years reveals the fact that April is the month of least precipitation. The average over this period was .48 inches as compared with .85 in February, the next lowest month.

With snowfalls coming after about three months of exceptionally mild weather, there was fear expressed by some of the recent settlers in the country that crops would be hindered.

The minister pointed out that this in itself was not sufficient cause for worry. Snow falling on unfrozen ground moistens the knolls more effectually than rain.

Experience has shown that a late seeding was balanced usually by either a rapid growth or a late autumn.

It is expected general seeding operations in Peace River would start within the next day or two and every indication pointed to a vastly larger area sown than last year, and a resultant bumper crop. Last year's Peace River crop was about 12,000,000 bushels.

British Leader In Deal

12,000 Acres Included in Agreement — Experiments Planned

Development of the Fort McMurray tar sands deposits on a large scale, by the Imperial Chemical Industries, Limited, a wealthy British concern of which Sir Alfred Mond is president, is a strong likelihood in view of the fact that this company has obtained an option on 12,000 acres of land, known as the Hammerstein and Athabasca Oil and Asphalt properties, lying between Fort McMurray and Fort McKay.

It is understood that the option, if not taken up beforehand, will expire in July of 1929.

To Try New Process

While the Mond interests have made no statement as to their plans, it is thought that experiments will be conducted with a new process tried out last summer in Germany with much success, of extracting oil from coal. The same process will be tried in respect to extracting oil from the tar sands.

The Standard Oil Company obtained the rights to this process for the North American continent, exclusive of British possessions and the Mond interests have the rights for the entire British Empire.

Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of the interior, last summer witnessed demonstrations of the oil extraction from coal in Germany. In Germany low temperature extraction methods were examined at Essen, Mulheim, Leopold and Minna Anna, and a visit was made to the coal liquifaction works being erected by the I. G. Farben Industries at Leuna, near Halle.

Experts have expressed their opinion that this process has great commercial possibilities.

City Bathing Pools Raking In Much Cash

Young Edmonton is taking to the water these days. In spite of the fact that hot weather has not yet been experienced, the city bathing pools are showing good returns.

Opened on Wednesday last, the South Side pool already has receipts of $375.40, while the West End pool receipts total $440.40. The Borden Park pool, which did not open until Saturday, handled 218 swimmers that day and 310 on Sunday, the receipts for the two days being $155.25.

Golf link receipts for Saturday and Sunday totalled $404.45.

BURNS FATAL TO OLDS BOY

OLDS, Alberta, May 7.—Robert Pickett, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Pickett, nine miles northwest of Olds, died Saturday night at the Olds hospital as the result of burns sustained while he was burning stubble on his father's farm.

Every piece of the boy's clothing was burned, except his hat and shoes.

The boy ran with his clothes in a mass of flame, for a distance of a quarter of a mile from the place where the burning stubble set fire to his clothes, to his father, who was running a tractor some distance away.

The lad was rushed to Olds hospital at once, but he died soon after his arrival.

Alberta College Would Change Land With City

A proposal to exchange land over three acres in extent for two acres owned by the city near Diamond Park has been put forward by Principal Dr. F. S. McCall, of Alberta college.

The land owned by the college is situated in the triangle near McDougall hill and has several shacks on it bringing in a small revenue. Recent building extensions to the college have made it necessary to seek outside property for recreation purposes, and it is now proposed to effect the exchange and to make college play grounds from the city's two acres.

An inspection of the two pieces of property will take place.

Building Program in Edmonton Progresses

Edmonton's spring building program is still going on steadily. This morning permits for two new dwellings were taken out, F. Schropfel taking out a permit for a $3,600 frame and stucco dwelling at 9836 108th street, and J. T. Jones taking a permit for a similar building at 11148 126th street at a cost of $2,500.

The May meeting of the Strathcona Business Men's Association will be held at the Westminster residence Tuesday evening, commencing with dinner at 6:30 o'clock. Hon. George Hoadley and John Blue will be the speakers. The meeting will be the last regular gathering until the fall.

IN BIG DEAL

SIR ALFRED MOND

British industrial magnate, president of Imperial Chemicals Industries, Limited, which has taken an option on 12,000 acres of tar sands near Fort McMurray. The company will extract oil from the sands by a new German method for which it holds exclusive rights in the British empire. Despatches from London today state that Sir Alfred is likely to be raised to the peerage in the forthcoming king's birthday honor list.

AUTO FORCED INTO DITCH; 3 ARE INJURED

Car Travelling on Wrong Side of Road Cause of Accident

Forced from the road by another car which was travelling on the wrong side of the highway, a car operated by Harry Graham, Edmonton, toppled into a ditch near Halfway House on the Fort Saskatchewan road Saturday night, resulting in injuries to Alex. Souter, farmer of the Fort Saskatchewan district, Douglas A. McKellar, United Grain Growers agent at Scotford, and Mr. Graham.

They were rushed to the Royal Alexandra hospital here. Souter is suffering from two fractured ribs and a fractured hip and internal injuries, while Mr. McKellar has a fractured hip and internal injuries. Mr. Graham is suffering from cuts and bruises. Two other men in the machine were not injured.

The driver of the car which forced the other off the road did not stop, and police are searching for him.

ARBOR DAY IS OBSERVED HERE

Edmonton today is observing Arbor day, annually set aside to give citizens the opportunity to clean-up the city, and various offices are closed until Tuesday to allow their staffs to participate in the clean-up drive.

Banks, all government offices, courts, law offices and other institutions are closed.

Arbor Day ushers in the clean-up campaign week, the clean-up organization having been working for several weeks as an advance drive for the campaign.

Council Will Not Fire Coast Chief of Police

VANCOUVER, B.C., May 7.—By a vote of four to three, the city council early this afternoon decided not to accept Commissioner R. S. Lennie's interim recommendation that Chief R. W. Long and Detective Sergeant George McLaughlin, of the Vancouver police force, be suspended during the inquiry which Mr. Lennie is conducting.

After considering the matter for more than three hours the city council decided that there were no definite charges made against the chief and his subordinate.

Canadian Air Mail Service Makes Auspicious Start in Eastern Provinces

ALL PLANES BUT ONE GET HOME SAFELY

Minor Mishap Only Bar to Perfect Opening—Much Time Saved

MONTREAL, May 7—The dominion government's air mail service made an auspicious start on Saturday and with the exception of a minor accident to one plane all time schedules were kept.

With a good tail wind to help it along the mail and cargo plane from Toronto arrived here on Saturday afternoon. The plane was piloted by Capt. J. H. Martin and made the flight of over three hundred miles in two hours and thirty seven minutes. In addition to 15 bags of mail, nine for Montreal delivery, and six containing mail for British and foreign countries, the plane carried a consignment of goods to a local store.

Make Good Time

Good time was also made by the Ottawa plane. It left the capital at 1:35 and arrived here 55 minutes later.

The bags containing the overseas mail were included with the cargo of the two planes which left shortly after the arrival of the Toronto and Ottawa machines for Rimouski. Both planes reached Rimouski in fast time and met the liner Regina, bound for Europe.

Sunday three other planes arrived, carrying mail of the steamer Empress of Scotland, which docked at Quebec Sunday afternoon. The planes took on their cargo at Rimouski. One of the planes was forced down at Riviere Ouelle with engine trouble. After the complaint had been rectified the plane continued its journey to Montreal and arrived here shortly after its companions had landed.

The three planes carried several bags of mail destined for Ontario points and these left Montreal at noon for the queen city.

May Extend West

OTTAWA, May 7.—Extension of Canada's aid mail route westward is in view although it is not likely that it will be in operation this summer. Inaugural delivery of air mail to Ottawa and Toronto is reported by post office officials as a complete success. During the coming season, plans based on the summer's work will be prepared for extension of the air mail service.

GEN. MOTORS ACCEPT RULE

OTTAWA, May 7.—The General Motors of Canada has consented to continue to pay to its 4000 Oshawa employees who were engaged in a recent wage dispute, the same wages as were in force before the reduction of last March until the 1929 models are introduced. After that time a new schedule will be proposed. This is the outstanding feature of the unanimous report of the board of conciliation and investigation recently established by the minister of labor. The board described the settlement as "satisfactory."

W. Tweddell, last year's British amateur champion, could do no better than an 86.

T. A. Torrance, Scottish amateur, finished with a score of 74 over Prince's course, taking the lead among the amateurs from Johnny McHugh, the Californian who scored 77.

Walter Hagen, American professional, opened his drive to regain the title he has held twice, with a 76, one over par, for the Prince's course. Hagen won the British open in 1922 and 1924.

Right behind Hagen came Archie Compston, British professional, who recently trounced "The Haig" 18 up and 17 to play in a special match. Compston had a 77.

Roger Wethered, British amateur star, ran into difficulty in his first test, shooting an 87.

"Long Jim" Barnes, who won the British championship in 1925, was around in 74. Tommy Armour, open champion of the United States and Canada, needed 77.

Jack Smith, long driving British pro, was just behind Mehlhorn, with 73, and Arnaud Massey, the French pro, was around in 74.

Harry Vardon required 84 and Ted Ray, his former playing partner, had a score of 80.

Robert Harris, former British amateur champion, returned a score of 85.

Railway Board to Meet Here June 14

The Board of Railway Commissioners will sit in this city Thursday, June 14, according to a telegram received Saturday by Sheriff John Rae, asking for accommodation in the court house on that day.

Sittings for the day will commence at 10:30 a.m.

While no indication was given in the wire as to the matters to be dealt with here, it is understood several questions are to come up for hearing.

It is expected that Chairman McKeown and Commissioners Thomas Vien, Hon. T. C. Norris and Hon. Frank Oliver will make the trip.

Message in Bottle Tells of Lake Disaster 19 Years Ago

Fate of Ferry Bessemer, 1909, Told on Scrap of Paper Found at Port Stanley—Will Investigate Authenticity

ST. THOMAS, Ont., May 7.—Enclosed in a tiny bottle, the first clue to the fate of the car ferry Bessemer was discovered on Port Stanley beach Sunday. The message, written in pencil on a hastily-torn scrap of magazine cover, was browned with age and almost illegible. It stated that the Bessemer was sinking 15 miles southwest of Port Stanley.

The Bessemer went down during a terrific gale in the early morning of December 9, 1909. Not a man of the crew of 28 was saved. It has since remained one of the unsolved tragedies of the Great Lakes. The message in the bottle is the first word of the crew since they left Conneaut, Ohio, the day before the tragedy.

It had generally been believed that the Bessemer sank off Port Talbot, about six or seven miles from Port Stanley. Distress signals were seen in the night. The message gives a different location to the wreck.

An investigation is being made to ascertain if possible if the message is genuine or only a hoax.

PARADE HELD ON SATURDAY FOR CLEAN-UP

Edmonton's annual clean-up parade was sent off to a good start on Saturday afternoon with a large street parade in which a great majority of Edmonton firms took part. Led by the Pipers' Band and marshalled by Bill Mathews, the procession started from the C.P.R. station and proceeded through the down town section to finish at the new C. N. R. depot.

There were many splendid display sections from local wholesale houses. All showed keen interest in a clean city and were out boosting it.

There were two sections of boys giving their support to the drive with all the noise-makers and novelties in their possession.

The Hudson Bay had a splendid two-team dray in the parade and there were also many new and second hand cars put in the procession by local dealers. Others in the parade were: Edmonton fire department, street cleaning department, McCosham Storage, Twin City Transfer, E. C. D. Co., Big Four Transfer, Gainers Ltd., Master Painters' Association, Hook Signs, Western Hardware, British American Paint Co., G. F. Stephens, Northern Hardware, Local 1016 Union Painters of Edmonton, Marshall Wells, Alta. Ltd., D. B. Lake, J. A. Werner, and the Federated Community Leagues.

Anniversary Services at Central United

Services commemorating the second anniversary of the union of Westminster Presbyterian and Grace Methodist churches were held at Central United church, both morning and evening Sunday. Central United, formerly the Westminster church building, was filled to capacity at both services.

In the morning the pastor, Rev. Russell McGillivray, occupied the pulpit. The choir, under the direction of the choirmaster, Sid Hendra, sang Turner's "Oh, Praise God in His Holiness," and Mrs. Adrian Brink, soprano, gave a solo.

In the evening Rev. D. G. McQueen, D.D., was in the pulpit. The choir sang Haydn's "The Heavens Are Telling," and Mrs. Gordon James, contralto, sang the solo.

W. G. Stillman was at the organ.

The anniversary celebrations will be concluded tonight with a musical and literary evening at the church basement. Refreshments will be served by a ladies' committee.

SEEDING WELL ADVANCED ON THE PRAIRIES

WINNIPEG, Man., May 7.—Given continuance of favorable weather conditions, seeding will be general in Western Canada this week, according to the first weekly crop report of the Canadian National Railways.

Already Manitoba is well advanced, a large number of points reporting wheat seeding from 60 to 90 per cent finished and the seeding of coarse grains begun. Manitoba, however, has been experiencing better weather conditions than Saskatchewan and Alberta.

In Saskatchewan high winds have hampered seeding, but it is not thought they have blown out much of the seed already sown. Drifting is reported in light ground areas, however, and the province generally could benefit from a heavy warm rain. In Alberta unfavorable weather conditions in the North particularly gave the farmers a setback in spring operations, but seeding will be general this week. All parts of Alberta report plenty of moisture in the ground and an increase in acreage sown to wheat is looked for.

Plowing and discing are being carried on vigorously all over the west, and the threshing of crops that remained in the fields during the winter is being proceeded with rapidly. Fall rye is showing up nicely in Manitoba and Saskatchewan. Only a few points report wet conditions on low ground, but in both Saskatchewan and Alberta much plowing remains to be done.

TO PARIS OPERA

Miss Mary McCormic, formerly of Belleville, Ark., is the first American singer in 30 years to sign with the Paris Opera company. She studied music at the University of Arkansas and later went to Chicago as a protege of Mary Garden.

GOVT. SUING ONT. BREWERY

TORONTO, May 7.—The dominion government's action against the Carling Export Brewing and Malting Co., Ltd., for sales tax of $149,160 on export beer and the gallonage tax of $272,240 together with interest, opened before Mr. Justice Audette, of Ottawa, in exchequer court today.

The total amount sued for is $141,400, interest at 5 per cent to June 1, 1927, and at two-thirds of one per cent thereafter on both sums, will bring the aggregate sum near the half million mark.

The action follows that which succeeded against Gooderham & Worts, of Toronto,e and arises out of th royal customs commission investigation in 1927.

N. W. Rowell, K.C., represented the crown, while W.N. Tilley, K.C., is retained for the defence, with J. H. Clark, of Windsor.

Major J. A. Nash, special government auditor during the customs probe, was an early witness, and the accuracy of his statements came under fire from Mr. Tilley, who strongly objected to what he called opinionative evdence.

Employes of City Seek Agreement to Save Autonomy

Expressing willingness to take out a charter in any international which will give them a charter as a union of civic employes, and at the same time give a written guarantee that the local union will have complete autonomy and jurisdiction over civic employes covered in any agreement the local makes with the city, members of union No. 30 have again written the city commissioners asking that this year's agreement be made with them.

The reason that the new agreement is asked for by 30 is that they already have a charter, and any change to a charter from an international union must take some time.

The commissioners and council have been trying to get local 30 and international union 92 together so that the one agreement can be made for both unions, and the matter will go to the finance committee again.

MUSICIANS OF EDMONTON AT BIG BANQUET

Premier and Mayor Attend 21st Anniversary of Festival

Commemorating the 21st anniversary of the founding of the Alberta Musical Festival, the local branch of the Festival Association held a banquet at the Hudsonia Saturday evening, May 5, the actual date of the first festival in 1907.

As outlined in a talk during the evening by Vernon Barford, one of the founders and dean of Edmonton's musicians, the festival was the first of its kind held in Canada. It was held in this city yearly until 1916, when the scope was so much extended that rather than have those competitors from the far-flung borders of the province travel all the way here each year, it was decided that it should be held in this city, Calgary and Lethbridge in rotation. That policy has been pursued ever since.

391 Competitors

Some 391 competitors had entered for this year's festival to be held at Lethbridge May 15 to 18 inclusive.

A. Samuel, chairman of the local branch, presided.

In welcoming the guests, A. Samuel, chairman of the local branch, spoke of the growth of the festival and of the hearty support given it by such distinguished guests as were present.

Premier J. E. Brownlee and his worship Mayor A. U. G. Bury replied.

H. G. Turner spoke of the future of the festival and held out even fairer hopes than those which had been realized.

Mr. Samuel read telegrams of congratulation from Harold Stutchbury, one of the founders, who was unable to be present, Jackson Hanby, Major Watts, F. J. Nurding, A. K. Putland, and Ernest F. Layton. M. Gardner, winner of the first baritone solo, sang, and W. J. Hendra sang the first tenor solo on the syllabus of the first festival.

Activities Outlined

Mrs. David Bowman, secretary of the local branch, outlined activities of the last year and paid eloquent tribute to Miss Beatrice Crawford and others for their excellent work in connection with the festival.

Among the invited guests were: Premier J. E. and Mrs. Brownlee; Mayor and Mrs. Bury; Commissioner and Mrs. David Mitchell; Miss Jean Forsyth; G. A. McKee; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hendra; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Barford; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Muir; J. K. Lowry; Ernest Henderson; Frank Lodge; Mrs. T. Winslow Hamilton, L.R.A.M.; Miss Edna Kells; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Mullett; Mr and Mrs. Herbert Wild; Mrs. M. Montgomery, Wetaskiwin; Frank Darimont; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Berenger; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Strachan; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Turner; Prof. Nicholls; Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Hustwick; Mrs. Crawford and Miss Beatrice Crawford; Miss K. H. Candy; John Oliver; Fred Hilliard and C. E. K. Cox.

ANZAC BUTTER EXPERT SEES TRADE CHANCES

"Trade relations between Canada and Australia are being placed on a more solid and satisfactory basis," said W. T. Harris, of Brisbane, Australia, in an interview with the Bulletin Monday. Mr. Harris is on his way to London to attend the World's Dairy congress as the representative of the Australian Dairy association.

Speaking of the Australian-Canadian butter trade, he said that Australia was very anxious to protect Canada's industry and supply her with butter at a reasonable price as she wishes to preserve and extend her market in Canada for her dried fruit products. The butter trade, he said, is being interfered with by New Zealand, who, working under the same advantages as Australia, is shipping large quantities of butter to Canada regardless of price or tariff. Most of the so-called Australian butter is in reality New Zealand butter, said Mr. Harris, and it is this butter which is really tending to hurt Canada's butter trade.

Mr. Harris stated that there is a possibility of establishing a market in Australia for British Columbia apples. At present this demand is being supplied by the United States, which is not in any better position to supply the Australian trade than is Canada.

Speaking of his visit to Canada, he expressed great admiration for Canada and especially the Canadian Rockies, the like of which he has never seen in any of his previous travels. The large amount of running water available for irrigation purposes was most astounding to him, he said. He is a firm advocate for the Canadian route to England, this route is not only quickest, but it holds more scenic advantages than the other routes.

Mr. Harris has been associated with the dairy trade in Australia for nearly forty years. He owned and operated a dairy farm of his own for 37 years and has been director of the largest co-operative dairy in Queensland for 22 years. He intends to visit Denmark, Switzerland, Sweden, Belgium and Ireland to study dairy methods.

Saskatchewan Now Is Rushing Seeding

REGINA, May 7—With the weather warming up farmers all over Saskatchewan are rushing their seeding operations, working from daylight to dark. It was estimated over the weekend that between 25 and 30 per cent. of wheat seeding over the whole province had been done, while only a negligible quantity of coarse grains are in the ground at present.

Reports received by the provincial department of agriculture at the close of last week indicated that the land was in great shape for seeding. There was no suggestion of any shortage of labor in any of the reports. Lowlying land is drying out rapidly.

On the lighter lands as much as 80 per cent. of the wheat has already been sown. Some soil-drifting on light land is reported from widely separated points.

LADS, DADS AND GRADS GUESTS OF KIWANIANS

Fathers and sons celebrated together at a special luncheon given by the Kiwanis club in the Macdonald hotel Monday at noon. About 175 guests and members were present with Tom Hughes presiding.

Among the guests were Mayor A. U. G. Bury Bishop Gray, James Ramsey, and the Edmonton Commercial Graduates and the University of British Columbia basketball teams.

A feature of the luncheon was a "temperance test" arranged by Thornton Graham and Harold Marsh. The test was to have a person turned around three times, with their eyes closed, and then have him walk in a straight line across the room.

The chief speaker was Rev. Charles Kelly Stone who had several words of wisdom and advice for the boys, quoting Prof. Michael Pupin as an example of how a man could progress in life with a very poor start. Orlando J. Miller, who also addressed the luncheon, said that the boys who were the future Kiwanians should live up to the motto, of the club which is "Service."

The program music included a flute solo by Bill Strachan, vocal solo by Master Delbert McFarlane, and a vocal solo by Master Bob Turner.

ANGLICANS OF WEST ASK FOR GREATER HELP

MONTREAL, May 7.—Probably the largest Anglican assemly that has ever met in this city gathered in the Forum Sunday night when 10,000 persons congregated at a special united service where pleas for the cause of the church of England in the prairie provinces were made by the bishop of Montreal, the bishop of Qu'Appelle and archdeacon McElheran, of Winnipeg.

Problems which were confronting the Anglican church in western Canada were dealt with by each of the speakers.

Bishop Farthing stressed particularly the unity of the church of England in Canada. It was, he felt, the duty of the older settlement here in Montreal to extend a helping hand to the new pioneers in the west just as the mother church in the old country and extended a helping hand to the first pioneers in eastern Canada.

Progress in Past

The bishop of Qu'Appelle brought out the fact that much had already been accomplished by the church in the prairie provinces and that encouragement was to be found in the progress that had been made in the past six years. In spite of this heartening progress, however, they were as yet unable to minister to any great proportion of the people living scattered in isolated groups about the wide tracts of country. It was heart-breaking he declared, to have to refuse the ministrations of the church to its members, as they continually had to do in the west. The need of the church was not only money, but the realization by more mothers that they should give their sons to the ministry.

Great optimism concerning the material future of the west was expressed by archdeacon McElheran. On the other hand he had no word of cheer to offer as to the spiritual welfare of the community and the growth of the church of England if, as at present, there was but one minister to 40,000 square miles and houses of worship so few and far between that many people who belonged to the church never had an opportunity of meeting for prayer.

"We wonder if there is going to be a church of England at all under these conditions on the prairies after several generations," he said.

Gyro Official to Visit in Edmonton

Glen Stevens, of Madison, Wisconsin, international vice-president of the Association of Gyro clubs, will be a visitor in the city Friday next, according to a wire received on Monday by Fred W. Kemp, president of the local club. Mr. Stevens will be accompanied by Clarence Lougheed and Claire Arnott, of Calgary.

This will be Mr. Stevens' first visit through the west and Gyro clubs all along the route are arranging to fete him. The local club has arranged for a banquet to be held at the Macdonald, drives in and around the city and a game of golf at one of the leading courses.

ONTARIO SENDS LARGE ORDERS FOR OUR COAL

Large orders are being received from Ontario for Drumheller coal, according to Howard Stutchbury, Alberta trade commissioner, who returned to the city Monday from a several days' visit to the southern part of the province. Some mines have received more orders than they can fill, but the main idea of the operators is to obtain a wide distribution in the east, to build up a market for the future, rather than to flood the market with a large quantity in the first year of the shipments.

With the commencement of shipments next year on January 15 the operators will endeavor to ship in quantity.

FRED BEZONA NATURALIZED, RECORD SHOWS

Further complications in the estate of Fred Bezona, Arctic circle trapper, who died some months ago and whose relatives police and consular officials are trying to trace, have now arisen through the finding that Bezona, although he entered the United States as an American citizen two years ago, had become a naturalized British subject in July, 1917.

Papers secured in a search of Bezona's effects showed that he had been married previously and has a family in the United States. Whether he was divorced before he married Lucy Tadyak, the Eskimo widow of another Arctic trader, is now being investigated, as on the finding rests the settling up of a not inconsiderable estate left by the dead man. The estate includes an up-to-date power sleds and a trading outfit worth many thousands of dollars.

Bezona was formerly a homesteader in the Peace River district who followed a trap line in the winter. He gradually drifted into the north country, coming out for the first time in 14 years in 1926. At that time he had gone far inside the Arctic circle and he married his Eskimo wife at Aklavik about four years ago. It is stated that if she is not entitled to the estate as widow, she will have a claim against it as a creditor, as she advanced much of the money necessary for getting the outfit together, being wealthy among the Eskimos before meeting Bezona.

Don't Envy Big Concerns

-Imitate Them

SMALL BUSINESSES have much to learn from large businesses, because all large businesses were at one time small.

About fifty per cent. of small business concerns are to-day not making money. Their volume is not big enough. The public does not know about them or their product. Why? Simply because they do not advertise in the Daily Newspapers.

Plenty of money is being made in business to-day—but it is being made by the big Corporations. And these firms are big because they advertise. They began in a small way, they turned out a good article and they knew it was good; they created in the public mind, through newspaper advertising, a desire to buy. The public now knows all about them and has confidence in them. That is one of the first lessons on the road to Success which Small Business has to learn.

IT IS WIDE OF THE MARK to say that opportunity is lacking to-day. Opportunity is knocking louder in 1928 than it ever did. And the helpful forces in operation now are more numerous, more powerful, more effective, than they were even a very few years ago. The psychology of selling has been organized and used as never before.

First and foremost among these helpful influences is the Daily Newspaper Press. There is no question about that. Whoever heard of an advertising campaign being successful without the aid of Daily Newspapers? The successful corporations are depending on the daily newspapers and are using more space in them than they ever did. Last year they spent more money in newspapers than in all other forms of publicity combined.

THE SERVICES of more than a score of officially Recognized Advertising Agencies are available to Small Business just as they are to Big Business. These Agencies are experts in marketing methods. They know how to prepare copy for the newspapers, copy that will arrest attention and convince prospective customers. They have mastered this great art. Their services are free to advertisers. The Newspapers pay the cost.

If your business is not growing as rapidly as should—it is not making money—both Daily Newspapers and Advertising Agencies are eager to help you get started on the high road to Success if you will but use them. Why not make the start to-day?

SOME BUTTER FACTS

Canadians consume in the course of a year approximately 250,000,000 pounds of butter. During the twelve months ending with February last the people of Canada imported from New Zealand 10,947,425 pounds of butter, and from Australia 384,272 pounds; a total importation from these two dominions of 11,331,679 pounds. The Australian treaty was in force throughout this whole period, and Australia and New Zealand are the only two countries to which its provisions apply.

Whatever may be the matter with the dairy industry in Canada, it seems clear enough from the figures that imports under the Australian treaty played no great part in increasing the supply and can have exerted no great influence in depressing the price. Of 28 pounds per head of butter consumed in Canada, about one and a quarter pounds came in under the terms of that convention. The representation that Australian and New Zealand butter wrecked the Canadian industry by flooding the market and smashing the price is sheer nonsense. The market has not been flooded from those quarters, as the figures show. Neither has the price been smashed, so far as the consumer can discover.

BIG BUSINESS IN SIGHT

The new engines which are now arriving for the E.D. and B.C. railway are not speculative investments of provincial money. They are being bought to meet a need that is already present, and growing more urgent as the months pass. Nothing can be much more certain than that when the threshers begin to hum next fall the E.D. and B.C. will require a sufficient supply of the heaviest and most powerful locomotives that the road bed will carry. More trains and longer trains are the very definite prospect that confronts this north-western line, and in the interests of both the settlers and the railway the time to get the motive power in hand is now.

In all Canada there is not a railway line with such an assured expansion of traffic as the E.D. and B.C. The outlook is indefinite only in that no one knows how heavy the traffic may become in the course of a year. Last year the road produced a surplus of $140,000 over the costs of operation. With the extensive settlement that is taking place in the northern districts, and the added efficiency given to the road by reconditioning and new rolling stock, there is every reason to expect that the showing will be better with each succeeding year. Every improvement that is made in the facilities for handling traffic at low cost will help to strengthen the financial position of the enterprise.

NO OCCASION FOR HASTE

The proposal of Mid West Utilities to buy the power plant and electric distribution system of the city introduces what is practically a new issue, since there has been no indication that the ratepayers desire to part with these utility enterprises. It is a proposal also which involves more than the direct financial responsibility and the rates which are to be charged for light and power. The pumps of the waterworks system are operated with electricity supplied by the power plant, and any failure of that supply would leave the city without water. The street railway operates with current supplied at cost; and any increase in the cost of current would adversely affect the financial position of that enterprise.

For these and other reasons, aside from the direct questions of investment in the power system and the rates to be charged, the matter is one which calls for very deliberate consideration. Hasty judgments are altogether out of place in respect to a proposition of such vital importance. Offers from any other parties are bound to be in the nature of better bids. Any further offer from the same company is bound to propose more favorable terms. The city is not at all in the position of trying to get rid of this utility. On the contrary, the property is turning in a good profit every year, after paying operating and overhead charges. It is for any party which wishes to buy to make it worth the city's while to sell. There is no occasion for precipitate or prejudicial action on the part of the city council. "Wait and see" is a good line of policy in such circumstances.

COMING AROUND?

Without committing the Government to the adoption of the old age pension scheme at the next or any session, Premier Brownlee says departmental officials during the summer will make enquiry as to the number of people who would be entitled to pensions and as to the drift of public opinion on the subject. Such method of conducting an enquiry is unusual. It looks somewhat like asking the officials to assume the role of political advisers to the Ministers. And it is doubtful if an investigation of the sort can be very conclusive. There is the advantage, however, that that kind of an enquiry will not cost anything. And any government which in this day and generation passes up an opportunity to appoint a commission of highly-paid probers is due for a measure of credit.

That investigation into the need or the practicability of the pension scheme is required is not apparent. That any serious investigation is intended does not seem probable, since the officials are to gather up such information as may come handy while carrying on their ordinary duties. The gesture will be interpreted as meaning that the Government is weakening in the open opposition to the pension scheme which it displayed during the late session, and is manoeuvring for a possible change of front. There must be some reason for the transition from the direct refusal to considerate neutrality. Perhaps the result in Medicine Hat had something to do with the case. If so, it seems unfortunate that there are not a few more bye-elections on the summer program.

Reward

By EDGAR E. GUEST

Down the months I've walked with care,
Facing rain and snow and sleet,
Life has led me here and there
To the bitter and the sweet,
Week by week and day by day
I've encountered joy and pain.
Now life whispers that I may
Go and fish a stream again.

Life the teacher, stern and true,
Holds me fast to book and rule,
Gives me problems I must do.
Sometimes keeps me after school,
Sometimes takes my sweets away
Sometimes punishes with pain,
Now life whispers that I may
Go and fish a stream again.

Life has prizes to bestow,
One by one as time flies on
Every little joy we know
Pays us for a care that's gone.
Now has come the month of May,
Done is winter's cruel reign,
And life tells me that I may
Go and fish a stream again!

Soap and Civilization

By DR. FRANK CRANE

There are many tests of the advance of civilzation such as the condition of women, the increase of inventions, the use of machinery, etc., but perhaps one of the best tests is the use of soap.

Soap stands for cleanliness and that is a qualification that is quite modern. It is a far cry from the beauty of the past ages whose people rarely took a bath and used perfumes to counteract all bodily odors.

One of the characteristics of American and Englishmen is their bath-taking propensities. Some of them carry their bath tubs with them on traveling and the use of bath rooms in European hotels is a significant invasion.

When one gets used to cleanliness it is a luxury. What is more delightful than the smell of newly washed clothes? How lovely to crawl in between sheets that have just been washed!

Speaking of perfumes, probably the most aristocratic perfume, that is, one stand stands highest in the opinion of refined people, is the perfume of good soap.

The manufacture of soap is an intricate process and requires highly specialized labor.

A certain company of soap makers plans making beads of soap, like little pearls, seen only under the magnifying glass to consist of hollow spheres with walls approximately five times as thin as those of ordinary soap flakes or chips. They dissolve instantaneously upon contact with water. They are made by dropping heated soap from a tower fifty feet high, the little particles forming into spheres in falling. This idea in soap making is the culmination of many years of experimentation and research.

Great fortunes and great business successes are built up generally because men can produce something that satisfies an extensive demand.

The more soap used the healthier the people, and the sounder their mode of living.

FORTY YEARS AGO

From the Edmonton Bulletin, Saturday, May 5th, 1888.

Telegraphic news, from Winnipeg:

McKittrick and Villie, the Union bank robbers, were sent up for trial.

Sullivan has arrived at New York and challenged Mitchell. It is reported that on his way he got drunk, insulted several ladies, and had a row with everybody he came in contact with, until the captain threatened to put him in irons.

Battleford: Mr. Vankoughnet, clerk of the Indian department went west this week.

QuAppelle: There are to be four members of the North West Assembly for Alberta: McLeod, Calgary, Red Deer and Edmonton; also four for Saskatchewan: Battleford, Prince Albert, Batoche and Kinistino.

Local: On Thursday afternoon a fire started on the Upper Flat on the Hudson's Bay reserve, endangering Mrs. Very's house and All Saints' Church.

D. Stewart, of Stewart and Bannerman, left for the Landing on Thursday to start his spring trading outfit down the river to Ft. Resolution.

Geo. Hutton arrived from Calgary and Ontario on Saturday last, accompanied by George Bull, who went out last fall, Mr. Underwood, an intending settler from Ontario, Alfred Bole and Jas. Bentick.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the Daily Bulletin, Wednesday, May 6th, 1908

Albertas' first musical festival was brought to a brilliant close last night by the concert in the Thistle rink. It was the greatest musical event that western Canada has yet seen, drawing talent from all parts of the province from Edmonton to Cardston.

Regina: A bill is before the Legislature to increase the membership of that body to forty.

Montreal: The new dreadnaught, the cruiser Indomitable, will bring the Prince of Wales to Canada for the Quebec tercentenary.

Washington: The Standard Oil company is appealing to the Circuit Court of Appeals against the fine of $29,000,000 imposed by Judge Landis.

C. C. Fairchild, D.L.S. has returned from a surveying trip to Lesser Slave Lake.

TEN YEARS AGO

From the Morning Bulletin, Monday, May 6, 1918.

Rome: Heavy fighting is reported along the whole Italian front. This is understood to be part of the great offensive staged by the central powers in hope of forcing a quick decision in their favor.

London: Punitive measures against the Marri tribesmen in the Punjaub district have been concluded.

London: Field Marshal French has been appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

The stern wheeled river steamer "City of Edmonton" is being offered for sale.

Washington: Congress today approved a bill requiring all persons entering the United States to have permits issued by the government.

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY

Diet Specialist and Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

Questions on Health and Diet Answered by Dr. McCoy, when addressed in care of The Edmonton Bulletin

DIET AND DRAINAGE

The British medical fraternity and, in fact, surgeons all over the world, have been subjected to a series of shocks during the past few years because of the statements given to the press by Sir Arbuthnot Lane, the famous English surgeon. Doctor Lane is known as one of the world's foremost surgeons, having been physician to the King of England and the royal family for many years.

Dr. Frank McCoy

In his work as a surgeon he originated a number of operations for which other surgeons have honored him by naming such surgical procedure after him. For example, the "Lanes' Link operation" is a well-known operation for removing a condition known as "Lane's Kink." This is a peculiar kind of kink which Dr. Lane attempted to cure through removing a section of the intestine.

Doctor Lane must be credited also with starting the recommendation of the use of Russian mineral oil to overcome constipation. It is less than twenty years since Doctor Lane suggested the use of mineral oils, and today these oils for lubricating the intestines are refined and sold by the hundreds of millions of gallons yearly.

After nearly a half century of surgical practise, Doctor Lane has summed up his conclusions in an apt phrase when he says that "health is simply a matter of diet and drainage." This is the same viewpoint held by hundreds of health writers throughout the world. Some name autointoxication as the cause of all disease, others use the words "toxicosis," "autotoxemia," "self poisoning," "intestinal poisoning" and similar words and phrases which mean practically the same thing.

The homely truths which I give you daily in this column may practically be all grouped under the titles of "assimilation" and "elimination." If you have been benefited through following my advice it is because you have learned better rules about the assimilation of foods and the elimination of waste products.

The hundreds of thousands of letters of appreciation which I receive prove to me that practically every disease can be prevented and even cured by the one who learns how to properly balance assimilation and elimination. This is getting back to certain fundamental truths as every physician must realize, even though there seem to be so many practitioners of the healing arts who are looking for obscure causes of disease and missing the common ones.

Readers are always more interested in the cure of disease than they are in preventing it, and seldom become interested in health until they have lost it.

Perhaps my readers would be interested in a series of articles explaining how disease already acquired may be cured through increasing the different eliminative processes which the body must use. The principal channels of elimination are through the lungs, the skin, kidneys and intestines.

Tomorrow's article will explain how to increase elimination of toxins through the lungs.

Question: O. L. B. writes: "My mother had her gall bladder removed two years ago. Now she has a rash all over her body, and her doctor tells her it is because she has no gall bladder. What can she do? Would an orange juice fast do her any good? I have tried the orange juice fast myself for eight days and feel like a different person."

Answer: There is probably no connection between the removal of your mother's gall bladder and the rash she is now bothered with. The gall bladder, if infected or diseased, may become a regular cesspool of poison. After such a gall bladder is removed, patient should feel better for a year or two, but if the same habits continue which produced the gall bladder trouble in the first place, other symptoms and disorders must inevitably result. The orange juice fast would certainly be a good treatment for her to take to cleanse the liver and remove excess toxins. Tell your mother to be especially careful afterwards to use good food combinations.

Question: Norma F. writes: "I wish you would tell me something about cucumbers. I am very fond of them, but even while eating them I have a secret fear that they are a kind of poison or something."

Answer:Cucumbers are not only harmless, but a really valuable salad vegetable when used in proper combination with other foods. The bad reputation of this vegetable is due to the fact that whenever it is eaten with an improperly balanced meal and there as trouble, the cucumber is immediately blamed, when the vinegar and onions with which it was "prepared" are the offedners. Use cucumbers quartered or sliced, without adding salt or oil, and you will quickly decide there is nothing "poison" about the cucumber.

Question: R. S. writes: "I have been troubled with eczema on my face and arms for some time. What diet or treatment do you advise?"

Answer: All you need to do is to combine your foods properly so that you will not have an over-acid stomach. Also, the skin may be peeled off with the sunburn produced from the use of the ultra-violet light. A few days' fasting is usually enough to make any skin eruption disappear, but the steady diet of well balanced meals is necessary to a permanent cure.

The old-fashioned girl was thought considerate if she helped her mother get the dinner; the modern girl is thought considerate if she comes in for it in time.—Judge (New York).

Planetary Influences on This Day for ALL

An inauspicious day. Do nothing with matters pertaining to women.

For Those Whose Birthday is Today

If you were born on May 7 your desires are directed to an understanding of the mysteries of life, and you may have many experiences tending to aroue your interest in affairs beyond your comprehension for the present. You may also be greatly misjudged and misunderstood and it is necessary that you cope with these situations by training your intelligence to the highest degree. Your best efforts would be expended in any work dealing with literature, botany, as historian, astronomy, pulp manufacturer, goldsmith, or electrician. The most favorable periods for attempting anything reasonable in nature where beneficial results are required are the year of 1928, the summer of 1929, the winter of 1930, the year of 1931 and the fall of 1932.

Luther Burbank, Born May 7, 1849.

An example of a person born on May 7 is Luther Burbank, famous naturalist, whose horoscope reveals an inquiring, scientific type of menntality, tenacious to the extreme, with an indomitable courage in its beliefs. There is an indication of love for the occult and mystic, with strong individualistic tendencies. The position of Mercury gives excellent mental faculties, while other planetary aspects incline the interests toward work of a highly original nature. There is shown an inability to work under other people's guidance and a necessity for personally handling all phases of any worrk in which the subject might be interested, from its inception to its culmination. Other persons born on this date are Joseph G. Cannon, former speaker of the house of representatives, and Major A. E. W. Mason, English novelist.

Sunshine Shafts

Will had a girl.

His uncle advised him to drop her, his mother wept and told him she had hoped he would marry a different type, his men friends warned him against the girl, his girl friends rather sneered at her; indeed, everyone wanted him to drop her.

But he did not.

Because the girl herself acted as if it would not bother her in the least if he did drop her.—College Humor.

Indignant Householder (holding up a dead cat): Here, constable, look what I found in my garden. What are you going to do about it?

Constable: Well, you know the law, mum. If it ain't claimed in six months, it's yours!"

The football went through the window of the constable's house.

The Urchin eleven took to their heels.

Out came the irate Bobby, and after a good chase, managed to catch one of them. Puffing and blowing, he managed to roar out, "You broke my window, didn't you?"

"Yes, sir," said the miniature international, "and I was running home as fast as I could to get the money to pay for it."

How Much Do You Know?

How is your general knowledge? The Bulletin is running ten questions a day. How many can you answer? Test yourself and your friends on the basis:—Each question is worth ten marks. If you can answer all the ten questions, you rate 100 per cent in the quiz. If you can answer eight you rate 80 per cent. If you can answer four, you rate 40 per cent. How much do you know?

1. Who were the first to fly by airplane from Europe to America?
2. Who was the most famous writer of rag-time songs?
3. What famous Roman general left his plow to fight?
4. Are women eligible for membership in the Canadian Senate?
5. How many acres are there in a square mile?
6. Who was "The Divine Sarah"?
7. Were any Canadians killed in Mons after dawn on Armistice Day?
8. What American girl recently married an Indian maharajah?
9. Distinguish between "forego" and "forgo"?
10. What is macaroni made from?

Answers to these questions will be found on classified page.

Keeping Mentally Fit

By Joseph Jastrow, A.B., A.M., Ph.D., LL.D.

Professor of Psychology, University of Wisconsin, 1888 to 1927; now professor emeritus; lecturer in the New School for Social Research, New York City; past president of the American Psychological Association.

WITHOUT LET OR HINDRANCE

Life is expression; but life is equally repression. The question is not "To be or not to be," but "To let go or hold back." So on the one hand we are full of urges, of instincts and desires, and impulses and wishes—all pushing to expressions, voting to let go. And on the other hand we are full of inhibitions and resistances, hesitations and fears, repressions and denials issuing their veto.

Shall the ayes have it or the noes? There is nothing more fundamental in life than this conflict. Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness all converge on this point, and most of all liberty, the freedom to live your own life. Yet unrestrained liberty is license, and instincts if let go would run wild, get off the track and wreck things. So there you are, and there you will always be, so long as you live in a world ruled by human nature.

The story of conflict is imbedded as deeply in the nervous system as it is written all over the history of the struggles of men and of nations for independence, a protest against slavery which is the supreme violation of human rights. But to rebel against the laws of human nature would be futile, and to resist temptation is the story far more truly of the rise of man than is yielding the story of his fall. No one beyond the first months on infancy follows impulse without let or hindrance. All training is restraint. Then soon appears the conflict between two opposed impulses. The child needs sleep, but wants to stay up and play. There is the conflict between fear and curiosity. The child is attracted to the new, but fears the strange. Soon it is a set battle. The child wants the other child's toy, but doesn't quite dare to take possession.

The biggest "no" is that of society, that issues a constant volley of "Thou shalt nots." And the varieties of restraint grow with our growth as socially minded creatures. We can't stand ridicule; we don't like to be scolded; we get to be ashamed of doing things we much like to do; everywhere there is hindrance. If we are too constantly thwarted we are unhappy, sullen, rebellious. If we always have our way we become general nuisances or inconsiderate tyrants.

It is when the conflict is set on a bigger stage with more complicated characters and situations that we realize that there is little gained without let or hindrance. And then we meet the problem of repression on a grand scale. Freud has made it the great psychological plot of the psychic life. Dreams express repressed desires; complexes arise from overrepression, and unsolved conflicts make for nervous troubles. And Freud also finds in the plots of most human dramas the play of that most strongly repressed and naturally strongest of all urges—that of sex. You can neither starve the sex life nor indulge it without let or hindrance without paying the cost.

Moral and national ideals meet with the same interpretation. Puritanism overdoes repression and may, when the leash breaks, lead to excesses in the other direction. We can't travel without friction of the wheels on the tracks; but we can't go freely with the breaks set. If we conform too much we become conventional nobodies, lose our individuality; if we rebel too much, are a law to ourselves, we are at outs with the rest of our fellow men and get nowhere.

Yet what is clear above all things is that we can't run wholly free without running wild. The only people who do as they please are infants and the mentally irresponsible, both victims of their impulses. Anybody who, under all circumstances, did what he felt like, said whatever some into his head, would be impossible.

So everything becomes a matter of wise restraint, and people divide roughly into two classes, the underinhibited (inconsiderate, quarrelsome, bullying, or impulsive, foolish, extravagant, indulgent, letting themselves go too freely), and the over-inhibited (timid, silent, shy, submissive, cowed, overcautious, hesitant, holding themselves in too much). It is often the underinhibited salesman who talks the overinhibited customer into buying what he or she doesn't want; the glib, talkative, underinhibited persuade and impose upon the overinhibited who lack resistence to match such aggressiveness.

But it isn't all quite so direct and simple. You often want to say a kind word or do a kind deed, but you let the impulse go because you don't want to risk being foolish, or forward, or misunderstood. The impulse is there, but it meets with resistance; and that becomes a mental habit. Quite likely the choice of your occupation has been much influenced by your place in this scale, and your success or failure may depend on this balance of opposing traits.

So important and universal is this distinction between inhibited types that we should have a simpler, shorter name for it, like "underhib" and "overhib." Which are you, under or over?

"GET IT AT WOODWARD'S"

Mid-West Utilities Offer Twenty-Five Per Cent. Reduction in Light Rates

$1,500,000 CASH

Assume City's Indebtedness of $1,638,779

Make Edmonton Centre for Distribution

The Offer:

To His Worship the Mayor and City Council of the City of Edmonton,
Civic Block,
Edmonton, Alta.

Gentlemen:

We beg to submit the following offer for your electric light and power distribution system and your power plant:

(1) We will pay the City One Million, Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,500,000.00) in cash.

(2) We will assume the outstanding debt on these utilities, approximately $1,638,779, and we will pay annually the interest and sinking fund charges required on the debentures issued by the City in respect to these utilities.

(3) We will pay to the City as taxes a fixed sum of Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) per annum.

(4) We will further pay to the City at the termination of the first year of operation 3 per cent. of the gross city revenue derived from electric light and power system, such percentage thereafter to increase each year by ½ of 1 per cent. until it reaches 5 per cent. per annum and it will thereafter continue at that annual percentage.

(5) We will reduce the domestic lighting rates by 2 cents per kilowatt hour. A comparison of the present rates and the proposed rates will be as follows:

	Present Rate	Proposed Rate
1 to 300 K.W.H.	8c	6c
301 to 1000 "	7c	5c
1001 to Upwards	6c	4c

(6) We will agree to a clause being inserted in the franchise agreement which will preclude any application by us being made to the Board of Public Utility Commissioners for an increase in rates without the consent of the City.

It will be our intention to encourage the establishment of industries and general development in the City, and we will reserve the right to establish such rates lower than those now in effect or to be put into effect.

(7) If at any time during the period of the franchise energy can be obtained from any electrical development of the Provincial Government, or from any other source, at a less cost at the switchboard than our cost of generation plus standby charges, then we will purchase power from the Government, or such other source, and pass the saving on to our customers by a further reduction in rates.

The following is an analyses of the revenues which the City will obtain in its general account based on our offer in comparison with what it estimates to obtain in 1928 by retaining its utilities:

Annual Revenue which City will obtain by acceptance of our offer:

Annual payment, inclusive of taxes	$250,000
Interest and Sinking Fund on $1,500,000 (Sinking Fund based upon 20 years, the proposed term of the franchise)	$125,372
3% Gross earnings of the electric light property	$ 30,000
Total Annual Revenue obtained by City	$405,372

Annual Revenue estimated to be obtained by the City in 1928 under its own operation:

Surplus from operation of power plant	$132,272
Surplus from electric light distribution	$112,000
Total	$244,272

In addition to the above the aggregate reduction of bills of domestic electric light customers due to the above reduction in rates will amount to approximately $150,000.

As the City this year estimates it will obtain from these utilities $244,272 for the relief of taxation, it will be seen that by the acceptance of our offer it would obtain in addition $161,100 per annum. This amount, of course, would increase as the percentage to be paid on gross revenue is increased until it reaches 5 per cent. per annum. This additional sum, which would go into the general revenue of the City, represents a reduction of 2¾ mills in the tax rate.

It is our intention to make the power plant at the City of Edmonton a large central generating station for the distributing of electricity not only to customers within the City limits but also to the surrounding country. By developing in this way the surrounding country, we will be taking the most effective means of developing Edmonton, and, in addition, with the increased load and gross revenue, the overhead will be spread over a larger volume, thereby enabling us to obtain a decrease in the unit cost. In the result we are enabled to make our offer more attractive than it could otherwise be.

By the enlargement of your power plant for the distribution of electricity to the surrounding country as compared with your purchasing electricity in bulk, we retain and extend one of the largest industries thereby increasing the payroll in the City.

The following are operating companies associated with this Company, generating electricity and supplying it to the districts named:

Nanaimo Electric Light, Power & Heating Co. Ltd.—Supplying electricity to the City of Nanaimo and surrounding district.

Duncan Utilities Limited—Supplying electricity to the City of Duncan and surrounding municipalities and district.

Union Power Company of Drumheller—Supplying electricity to the mine operators (under contract) and to the Town of Drumheller and surrounding municipalities.

We have at present under construction transmission lines to serve the towns of Hanna, Big Valley, Three Hills and Trochu. We also are constructing a transmission line to Willow Creek to serve the new mines to be opened up in this district. The owners of these leases have signed contracts with the Company to take electricity from it.

Our offer to supply electricity to the Town of Stettler has also been accepted by the Council and a by-law is being submitted to the rate payers.

We also intend constructing transmission lines to serve the towns of Castor, Alliance, Galahad and Forestburg.

Northern Light and Power Company—This Company supplies electricity to Indian Head, Broadview, Moosomin; Grenfell, Wolseley; Balcarres; Whitewood; Abernethy; Lemberg and Newdorf.

It is proposed to construct approximately 500 miles of transmission lines in the Province of Saskatchewan this summer.

Mid-West Utilities, Limited—This company generates and supplies electricity, in the Towns of Rosetown, Kindersley, Watrous and Lloydminster in the Province of Saskatchewan; Vegreville, Mundare and Raymond in the Province of Alberta. It has also obtained franchises at Imperial, Young and Nokomos. This Company has also recently obtained the franchise in the City of Yorkton in the Province of Saskatchewan and is now making arrangements to establish in this City a large generating plant so that electricity can be transmitted to the municipalities in the surrounding district.

It will be essential, of course, that a franchise agreement for 20 years be entered into containing such provisions as will fully and adequately protect both parties to the agreement.

If this offer is favorably considered by the Mayor and Council we are prepared to make a substantial deposit as evidence of good faith, and to give the City such satisfactory assurance as the Council may require as to our ability to faithfully fulfil the proposed obligations.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Yours faithfully,
C. J. YORATH,
President, MID-WEST UTILITIES, LIMITED.

By accepting our offer the city will have lower rates and lower taxes.

The electric light consumers will pay $150,000 less per annum for electricity.

The city will not have to issue further debentures for its light and power plant and will have $1,500,000 to carry out very necessary improvements.

MID-WEST UTILITIES LIMITED

DISTRICT NEWS

Baseball League in Wataskiwin District

Exclusive to Bulletin

WETASKIWIN, May 7—It now appears as if the people of this community will have the opportuniay of seeing good baseball this season. A few days ago a meeting was held in Wetaskiwin, which was attended by representatives from Bashaw, New Norway, Ponoka and Wetaskiwin, when it was decided to form the Battle River Baseball league, composed of teams from these four centres.

The officers chosen were: President, Jas. A. Charlesworth, Bashaw; secretary-treasurer, J. Olstad, Wetaskiwin; directors, F. Buckley, of New Norway; Fred Nelson, of Wetaskiwin; Bert Longman, of Ponoka, and H. Schultz, of Bashaw. A handsome silver cup will be presented to the league to be played for. A schedule of games has been prepared, and awaits the sanction of the executive. It is expected that the opening games will be played May 22. The Moose lodge, in Wetaskiwin, is sponsoring the local team, with Fred Nelson as manager, and we are informed that there are a number of good players ready to don the uniform.

A soft ball league was formed in Wetaskiwin recently, and games have started. The nights of the games are Mondays and Thursdays, and the play is creating a great deal of interest. Eight teams have entered the league, namely, the Elks, Moose, Kiwanians, Clerks, Creameries, Bankers and two High School teams. The three games played have resulted in close scores.

It is expected that the golf will be to the fore this season, as the games commence this week-end with a two-ball foursome competition. All members will be handicapped and each old member will be partnered with a prospective member or novice. The club is offering suitable prizes to the winners of this event.

Mrs. T. C. Rubbra, who is leaving Wetaskiwin to take up her residence in Edmonton, was the guest of honor at a meeting of Peace Hill chapter, I. O. D. E., which was held at the home of Mrs. P. A. Miquelon, on Tuesday evening. She was presented with a silver platter as a token of esteem and remembrance from her friends of the organization.

The Wetaskiwin Ladies' Lawn Bowling club held their annual meeting at the home of the president on Wednesday evening, with a good attendance. The election of officers resulted in the following being chosen: President, Mrs. Dave Baker, re-elected; vice-president, Mrs. Thos. Spencer; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. J. A. Hay; executive committee, Mrs. W. Gibson, Mrs. E. D. O'Neil, Mrs. Roulstone and Mrs. Jas. Dixon; management committee, Mesdames Baxter, Martin, Paton and Chiddy. Playing for the season will commence about May 15th.

Wetaskiwin Board of Trade Hold Luncheon

Exclusive to Bulletin

WETASKIWIN, May 7—The joint luncheon of the Board of Trade and the Kiwanis club, held on Tuesday evenings, was a successful affair. Hon. J. F. Lymburn, attorney general of Alberta, was the speaker for the occasion, and he gave a lucid statement regarding the railway, financial and other problems of the province. The Board of Trade now has a membership of about 185, and several important matters are being dealt with.

The Ladies' Aid of the First United church tendered Mrs. J. R. Marshall a farewell tea in the church on Saturday afternoon, when she was presented with a silver plate on the eve of her departure for Lacombe.

The farmers of the Wetaskiwin district are all busy on the land, and a lot of wheat has been sown. On Saturday last 120 acres of wheat was in the ground on the MacEachern farm adjoining the town. The land is in good condition.

The case arising out of the automobile accident south of Wetaskiwin recently has been postponed until Saturday, as Mr. Taylor, of Edmonton, one of the principal witnesses, has not sufficiently recovered from his injuries to be able to appear in court.

A pleasing event took place at the home of Mrs. Sam Cole recently, when a farewell party was given to Mrs. T. C. Rubbra, who is leaving the city to take up her residence in Edmonton. Rev. P. C. Wade, on behalf of the W. A., the Sunday school and the vestry of Immanuel church, presented Mrs. Rubbra with a silver entree dish as an appreciation of her work in connection with the church.

The Oddfellows' celebration on Sunday afternoon was a very successful affair. Brothers and sisters from Ponoka and Millet joined the local members and all marched to the Angus theatre, where divine worship was held. Rev. A. R. Aldriche, of Edmonton, delivered an excellent sermon and Rev. A. L. Elliott and Rev. P. C. McCrae took part in the service. During the service the Coal Lake Boys' band rendered a number of selections which delighted the crowd. After the service, refreshments were served in the lodge room by the Rebekahs.

Mrs. Edmund A. Bryan, who has been a resident of the district for about ten years, died on Saturday last at the Wetaskiwin hospital. While returning home from a neighbor's she was taken with a stroke and never regained consciousness. She came from Norwich, Ont., her birthplace, to Alberta, in the year 1900, and resided in the Red Deer district until she came here. She leaves a husband and two sons, all of the Wetaskiwin district. The funeral service was held in the First United church on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. A. L. Elliott. The floral tributes were especially numerous and beautiful. The interment was in the Wetaskiwin cemetery.

On Wednesday afternoon R. M. Angus, police magistrate, gave his decision in the case of Pat. Patenaude, who was accused of having sold a bottle of liquor to a man named Malmas. He found the accused guilty, and imposed a fine of $200 and costs or in default of payment, to two months in the Fort Saskatchewan jail. The case has been appealed.

Lloydminster Youth Mangled by Tractor

Exclusive to Bulletin

LLOYDMINSTER, May 7. — The weather conditions continue cold and disagreeable. The farmers, however, are busy on the land and making good progress with seeding, though to date there is little growth.

A serious accident took place here Wednesday. The little son of Mr. C. H. Gerow, furniture dealer, undertook to have a ride on a passing wagon attached to a tractor. The driver did not notice the little fellow until he had fallen off the wagon and was run over by a heavy disc which was trailing. The boy was badly mangled, one leg being badly cut. Though in a critical condition at the present time, there is good reason to hope for ultimate recovery.

Mr. Till, manager of the Lloydminster Milling Co., is putting in a service station on Meridian street, immediately opposite the Meridian barn.

The Hart-Parr agent here is doing a most thriving business in sale of Hart-Parr engines.

In the past ten months he has sold something over 30 new engines. As a matter of fact, the demand for the past two months has been so great that it has been impossible to secure a sufficient supply.

WASKATENAU, May 7.—Work on the land is general here, but the snowstorm on Tuesday has made it necessary for the farmers to discontinue seeding for a few days.

The Home Grain company has begun construction work on the elevator which they are building here. This will be the fourth elevator in Waskatenau, the others being the Alberta Pacific, the Davis company and the Northern Grain.

Dr. Huckell has returned from the medical clinic which he attended in Edmonton.

The Brighton school, which was closed for two weeks on account of the illness of its teacher, opened again on Monday, Mr. Clark having returned from the University hospital on Friday.

On account of the inclement weather, the Women's Institute card party held at the home of the honorary president, Mrs. MacEachern, was not very largely attended.

The last weekly dance of the season was held in the Community Memorial hall on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Haddow have come to this district to make their home, and will farm one of Mr. Patterson's quarter-sections for a year.

Mrs. Jack Hunter and children are spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Fetterly, prior to joining Mr. Hunter, who will take a position on the experimental farm at Brooks after Convocation, when he will receive his degree of B.S.A.

Will Phillips, confectioner, has recently installed a large Frigidaire in his store building and is now equipped to handle a large trade all the year round.

Mr. Edgar Powell has returned after a very successful season's trapping, near Buck Lake, west of Wetaskiwin. A few days ago word had come of the death of his father, Mr. Monroe Powell, of Macon, Missouri, in his 86th year.

Mr. Ed. Vance is building a residence on the lot opposite the athletic grounds.

Mrs. Len Beatty, of Edmonton, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. C. Patterson, has returned to her home.

Heavy Storm Sweeps Entwistle District

Exclusive to Bulletin

ENTWISTLE, May 7—There was an intense storm passed over this district Thursday, which blew over telephone poles and broke wires, completely demoralizing the service.

Inspector McDonald had a narrow escape from certain death. He had been working in the bush east of town, and on coming out to move his car to another point, a sudden squall came up and knocked many more trees down, one of which, a very large spruce, fell over the main road, missing the car by three feet. It necessitated an axe to get the car disengaged from the branches which entangled it.

Rev. A. L. Bee of Viking is in town renewing old acquaintances.

An at home was held in the residence of Mr. Oscar Hale to celebrate his return from an Edmonton hospital and Mrs. Hale's birthday. The latter was presented with a set of cutlery from the ladies of the town. Music and cards were the amusements, the winners being Messrs. McGuire, McPhee and R. Brown, Mesdames McPhee, Read and Knight.

A sumptuous repast was served by Mrs. Hale, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Roffey.

Mr. Dewey Osborne, of Drayton Valley, took his wife to Edmonton today, where they will spend the summer.

The roads are drying up fast and motor travel is extensive on the Jasper Highway.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bolt, a son, on May 3.

Spring Work Well Started At Vermilion

Exclusive to Bulletin

VERMILION, May 7.—Farming operations are in full swing in this district. Although the last few days have been colder than the weather enjoyed last week and there was a light fall of very moist snow on Monday, there has not been sufficient precipitation to delay work on the land. Seeding is late this year, but farmers are looking forward to another bountiful crop with plenty of moisture during the growing season.

A carload of young trees from the nursery four miles south of the town is being shipped to Edmonton this week.

Gardening preparations and a general cleaning up of back yards is noticeable these days. Lilacs and flowering bulbs are commencing to show green buds and shoots in profusion, and the grass along the roadsides is rapidly covering the brown growth of last summer.

Mr. Scarborough of the local high school and Mr. Stewart, principal of the public schools, were week end visitors in Edmonton last week. The trip was made by motor route with Mr. W. Wiebe, who returned with a handsome new car.

Ardrossan Suffered Heavily From Storm

Exclusive to Bulletin

ARDROSSAN, May 7.—The storm on Tuesday, May 1, did considerable damage to the telephone lines in this district. Efforts are being put forth to have the wires repaired and the people of this community will be enjoying their telephone service as before.

Mr. C. Wilson Parker, who has been attending University in Edmonton since last fall, returned home Saturday evening.

The ladies of the United church have been spending considerable time towards fixing up the church, cleaning the windows, woodwork and floor, and doing all possible to beautify the building.

Rev. Mr. Lockyer, Church of England clergyman, will conduct the regular monthly service in the Baker school on Sunday, May 6.

Miss Evelyn Graham, who has been visiting in the district during the past week, returned to her home at Redwater on Thursday, May 3.

Several members of the Parker household motored to Irma on Sunday, April 29, to visit Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Currie.

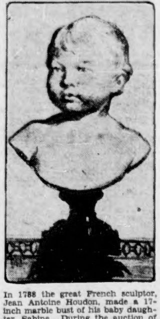
Killam Votes for Calgary Power Co.

Exclusive to Bulletin

KILLAM, May 7.—The Viking Dramatic Society has arranged to stage their latest play at the Jubilee theatre at Killam on Friday evening, May 18, under the auspices of the Killam Young People's Society.

At the regular meeting of the Killam council held on Monday evening, April 30, the new bylaw respecting the agreement of Killam with the Calgary Power company was given its second reading. The bylaw has been approved by the board of public utility commissioners, and the Killam council is giving official notice this week of their intention to pass the said bylaw.

BRINGS $245,000!



In 1788 the great French sculptor, Jean Antoine Houdon, made a 17-inch marble bust of his baby daughter, Sabine. During the auction of the art collection of the late Judge Elbert H. Gary the other day, the bust brought a price of $245,000. Judge Gary had acquired the treasure in 1912.

Bank Official at Munson Transferred

Exclusive to Bulletin

MUNSON, May 7.—Mr. Fasman of the Farmers' Trading Co. has started an ice cream parlor in his store and has hired Miss C. Angus to assist him in this department.

A. J. Allan, former teller of the Royal bank, has been transferred to Didsbury branch and his place is being taken by Mr. Moore of Edmonton. Mr. Allan was very popular and will be greatly missed in this district.

The monthly meeting of the W.I.G.C. will be held at the home of Mrs. Tarr on May 12. The main program will consist of talks by Mrs. Gibson and Miss Page, of Drumheller, and a few musical numbers.

Mrs. Jacobs is a visitor of Calgary this week.

J. J. Patterson, late of Drumheller, has rented the building known as the Delmonico Cafe and is opening it up this week as a butcher shop.

W. F. Lambert is in Calgary this week taking medical treatment.

Seeding is general, and a few farmers are threshing. Threshing is reported good.

BURSTING DAM AT ST. JOVITE CAUSES FLOOD

Five Bridges and Power Plant Washed Away—Trains Held Up

MONTREAL, May 7.—Five highway bridges in the neighborhood of Labelle and St. Jovite and a $30,000 electric power and light plant at St. Jovite were washed away by the floods that swept through the northern section of the Laurentian district over the week end.

The floods resulted from the breaking of three power dams under the pressure of waters released by the melting ice and snow during the warm weather of the past few days.

St. Jovite is situated about 75 miles north of Montreal and Labelle is thirty five miles north of St. Jovite.

Despite the severe damage reported, there was no loss of life and no injury to persons.

Roads Blocked

The Montreal-Ste. Agathe highway and several byways were blocked to traffic while the Canadian Pacific railway Laurentian division trains had to transfer their passengers today at Prefontaine because it was feared that the tracks had been undermined by the onrushing water that came through a break in the retaining wall there.

The dam at Lake Croche was the first one to break. A few hours later the St. Jovite and Prefontaine dams smashed.

With the bursting of the dam at St. Jovite, the Vanchesteing electric power and light plant was washed away and the waters carried away several bridges in the vicinity.

Tonight it was reported that the water was receding and that there seemed to be no further danger of more damage with the exception of what will be done to the highways as the water draws away.

GERMAN FLIERS COMING NORTH

NEW YORK, May 7—The crew of the German monoplane Bremen will visit Montreal and Quebec on their aerial tour in the F-13, sister ship of the trans-Atlantic plane, it was announced here today.

The fliers, Baron Von Huenefeld, Col. James Fitzmaurice and Captain Herman Koehl, will arrive in Montreal for Quebec on the afternoon of about 1 p.m. They will leave Montreal for QuQebec on the afternoon of Tuesday, May 22. On Wednesday, May 23, they will fly from Quebec to New York.

The announcement by the consulate, explaining the purpose of their visit, stated:—

"The German-Irish trans-Atlantic fliers will, after having finished their air tour through the United States, make a flying trip to Canada in order to demonstrate to the Canadian government and the Canadian people their sincerest gratitude for the invaluable assistance and cordial hospitality they have enjoyed during their stay in the great dominion."

WALL STREET OPENING

NEW YORK, May 7—A wild outburst of bullish enthusiasm characterized the opening of today's stock market. Radio opened with a block of 10,000 shares at 191, or 7¾ points above Friday's close. American Can opened at 92 to ⅝, a new high, and the first sale of Yellow Cab at 38, up 1. Curtiss Aeroplane jumped five points to a new peak at 111½ on the first sale and initial gains of a point or two were recorded by Allied Chemical, General Electric and New York Central, Brooklyn Manhattan Transit opened 1⅝ lower.

NEEDLE CAUSES DEATH

TORONTO May 7.—While working in his tailoring establishment here last week, John Cowle, aged 74, of Wellesley street, pricked one of his fingers with a needle. He died Sunday from blood poisoning. He did not consider the injury serious until last Friday when his arm began to swell.

Amusements

AT THE CAPITOL

With movieland's favorite male star, Richard Barthelmess, on the screen in his latest production, "Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come", and four high-class stage attractions including the Capitolians, the Capitol is offering a program for today, Tuesday and Wednesday that is replete with class.

Countess Levaska, the "Russian Nightingale", who has just concluded a successful tour of the orient and the U. S., will be heard in a pleasing repertoire; Joe Riley is a harpist of international renown, and Sid Barnes is returning with a new monologue, and will also act as master of ceremonies.

Richard Barthelmess, who is starring in First National's "The Little Shepherd of Kingdam Come", at the Capitol theatre, now has a lot of sympathy for the old-fashioned boy who knew just two seasons—those of stone bruises and chilblains.

While Barthelmess was making the picture, he played most of the scenes barefoot. He roamed over very rough country, in quite chilly weather, so that the two seasons came at once for him—the stone bruises and the chilblains.

It had been years since the star went barefoot, and he finds that the revival of a boyish custom holds no special pleasure, at least on rocky ground and with chilly breezes blowing.

ELK OFFICIAL FATALLY SHOT

BUFFALO, May 7—Feeling in western New York runs high against two coastguardsmen held on a charge of shooting J. D. Hanson, secretary of Niagara Falls lodge No. 346, B.P.O. Elks. Hanson is in hospital with very little chance of recovery. One bullet entered his head and destroyed his right eye.

Glenn Jennings and Chris Dew, accused of the shooting, are confined to quarters at Fort Niagara, pending decision of authorities as to the method of action. They had been detailed to watch for rum runners along the Niagara county highways.

Hanson was returning to the Falls after taking a party of friends to Lewiston when the coastguardsmen dressed in overalls and sheepskin jackets, came upon him on the Lewiston hill. Suspecting he was a rum runner, they commanded him to stop. Hanson apparently thought they were highwaymen. He tried to speed away and the guardsmen fired several shots. One went through the windshield and entered the driver's right temple.

Wealthy members of the Elks in western New York have offered financial aid to bring Jennings before the courts.

MOND FOR PEERAGE?

LONDON, May 7.—Right Hon. Sir Alfred M. Mond, M.P. for Carmarthen, has intimated that he will not seek re-election, which confirms recent rumors that he is slated for the peerage in the birthday honors. Sir Courtenay C. Mansel is a prospective candidate for the Carmarthen riding.

Walking in front of a car operated by F. E. Pearce, Ardrossan, Alta., James Reid, 10361 103rd avenue, was knocked down at 95th street near the Bowden Block late Saturday night and sustained severe bruises to his face, according to police report. Nineteen accidents were reported over the week-end.

FIRE DESTROYS VILLAGE

CAIRO, Egypt, May 7.—One person was killed and 12 seriously injured in a fire in a village near Mansura while 230 dwellings were destroyed. Two other fires in villages in lower Egypt destroyed 56 dwellings.

AT THE PANTAGES

A woman who moved in the highest circles of London society, but who was in reality a member of a gang of crooks specializing in the theft of valuable jewels, is presented in "The Last of Mrs. Cheyney," a smart English comedy, which will be offered at the Pantages theatre all this week by the Gordinier Players. The engagement opens today with Bargain night, and popular-priced matinees are scheduled for Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

"The Last of Mrs. Cheyney," which is from the pen of Frederick Lonsdale, one of Britain's foremost playwrights, comes to Edmonton with a record of having played for a solid year in London, and a similar length of time in New York. In the Old Country, the leading parts, which will be assumed here by Miss Mento Everritt and Mr. Andrew Leigh, were taken by Gladys Cooper and Sir Gerald Du Murier, while in New York, Ina Claire and Roland Young appeared as Mrs. Cheyney and Lord Dilling. The dramatic stock rights for such an outstanding international success are extremely high, but Mr. Gordinier, always eager to give his Edmonton clientele the very best vehicle obtainable, made no demur about paying the high price demanded. This week's attraction is recommended without reservation as the leading event of the Gordinier Players' engagement to date.

As there promises to be a heavy demand for seats for "The Last of Mrs. Cheyney" patrons are asked to make their reservations as early as possible.

AT THE PRINCESS

Warner Oland, now with John Barrymore, in the Warner feature film, "When a Man Loves" at the Princess theatre, was born in Sweden. He came to this country at an early age and was educated in Boston. He began his stage career with Viola Allan, later appearing with Southern and Marlowe. His screen career has included success as scenario writer, producer and actor. Warner Oland's literary triumphs have included translations of the plays of Strinberg. He is an indefatigable worker for many and widely diverse interests. In "When a Man Loves" he plays the part of Andre Lescaut, brother of Manon.

Bennett Hits Gov't Immigration Policy

TORONTO, May 7—Appearing as a guest of Ward One Conservative association, of Toronto, at a dinner here Saturday night, Hon. R. B. Bennett, leader of the Conservative party in Canada, addressed the gathering on national issues, and vigorously attacked the federal government's immigration policy, which he declared had resulted in fewer people coming to the country than departed for the United States in the last five years.

AT THE EMPRESS

The task of cutting and editing the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer screen version of "Ben-Hur" in two languages and on two continents was by far the most gigantic enterprise ever undertaken for any super-feature. The total of the negative film exposed during the making of "Ben-Hur" amounted to 1,900,000 feet, which is 900,000 greater than that of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," which is the nearest competitor. From this mountain of celluloid 850,444 feet of positive were printed, more than double the entire footage of "Th Big Parade."

With sixteen pictures to the foot this makes a total of 13,600,000 individual pictures which the film editor and his assistants had to screen before attempting to assemble and edit the film down to its present length of 12,000 feet. Thus for every foot of film shown to the audience this week at the Empress theatre there were 160 feet discarded. For those interested in further facts and figures it can be mentioned that it would take six days to run "Ben-Hur" in its entire length, including all the sequences and scenes shot in Italy and at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios in Culver City, Cal.

AT THE MONARCH

Some idea as to the physical magnitude of Charlie Chaplin's production, "The Circus," which comes to the Monarch theatre Wednesday may be had from figures compiled by George Webster, general statistician at the Chaplin studio.

Livestock housed at the Chaplin plant in Hollywood for a period of more than a year included elephants, lions, tigers, horses, mules, monkeys, pigs, dogs, cats, ducks, pigeons and geese. To properly feed and care for such an assortment of guests the commissary department was required to handle for many months, food items that totalled more than sixty thousand pounds, the greater bulk of this being in beef and tons of hay, corn, carrots, potatoes and bread.

Harry Ray Nelson was sworn in by Mayor Bury this morning as special constable on relief duty during the holiday period.

AT THE RIALTO

Five reels of infectious comedy will be presented to the public when "Publicity Madness," films clever satire on modern business methods opens at the Rialto theatre today.

This production, co-starring Edmund Lowe and Lois Moran is a study in contrasts, with comedy depending on the characterizations and situations rather than any set "gags". There is the unsuppressable soap salesman—Edmund Lowe. He finds himself in any number of tight places from which he extricates himself neatly, and humorously.

The old fashioned owner of the Soap Factory, "Uncle Elmer", gives E. J. Ratcliffe another opportunity to create another lovable character. Arthur Housman, in the role of a bill collector is said to create nothing but merriment with his methods of collection. Norman Peck as the shy, high-brow Wilbur, the office boy furthers many a humorous scene through his reactions.

And finally, dainty Lois Moran, who starts out as a drab type of girl, proves she can do comedy as well as drama by the manner in which she handles the metamorphosis of Violet Henley into a snappy modern flapper.

On the same program as the added feature Tom Tyler and his pals will be shown in a snappy, thrilling Western. Don't miss this inimitable trio, in there best Western to be produced. On the stage twice daily at 3 and 8:30 p.m. Doris Jordon, Helen Shirlan and Dorothy Hackwell will entertain in character songs and dances.

AT THE DREAMLAND

Three hundred Chinese pirates were killed and one hundred and fifty captured in a recent attempt to perform a raid similar to those of the old Barbary Corsairs as pictured in James Cruze's "Old Ironsides", gigantic historical photoplay now showing at the Dreamland theatre, according to a press dispatch from London.

In "Old Ironsides", heroic story of the frigate "Constitution" and its conquests against the corsairs of old Tripoli, one of the most thrilling scenes depicts the raiding of an American merchant ship by the pirates of 1804.

Those featured in the sea picture are Esther Ralston, Wallace Beery, George Bancroft, Charles Farrell and Johnnie Walker. The story was prepared especially for Paramount by Laurence Stallings. It was suggested and adapted by Harry Carr and Walter Woods.

MISS EDMONTON BATHING BEAUTY CONTEST

A contest will be held in the Capitol Theatre, Edmonton, during the week commencing Saturday, May 12th, to determine the most popular and best looking young lady in Edmonton.

This contest is sponsored by the Western Division of the Famous Players Canadian Corporation Limited. A young lady will be chosen in each City and the winners will be given free trips around the Western Circuit to compete in the Miss Canada Contest which will be held one day in each of the following Cities: Edmonton, Calgary, Moose Jaw, Regina, Brandon and Winnipeg.

The following are a few of the most important rules and regulations governing the Miss Edmonton Contest:

(a) All contestants must be of good appearance, unquestionable character, single, between the ages of 16 and 25.

(b) All contestants while in the theatre will be under the guidance of a competent chaperone.

(c) The winner of the Miss Edmonton Contest will be given a trip around the Western Capitol Circuit, all expenses paid, to compete in the Miss Canada Contest. Mrs. Leila Auger Thomas, wife of the Western Division Manager of Famous Players, will personally chaperone the local winners in their trip through the West.

(d) The winner of the Miss Edmonton Contest will be given as a prize a complete outfit of clothes and many other prizes from local merchants.

(e) The winner of the Miss Canada Contest will be given a trip to Galveston, Texas, to compete in the Miss Universe Contest to be held in that city during the month of June. All expenses will be paid and Mrs. Thomas will be the traveling companion. Efforts are being made to have the Famous-Lasky Film Company give Miss Canada a film test.

(f) In order to make the contest for the Miss Canada title fair to each of the local winners, it is provided that when the contest is being held, say in Regina, that Miss Regina will not appear and so in each City where the final contest is being conducted the young lady who has won the local contest will not appear in her home town.

(g) The Miss Edmonton Contest will be adjudged by the patrons of the Capital Theatre by secret ballots.

These ballots will be deposited in sealed ballot boxes and will be counted each evening by representatives of the Edmonton Bulletin.

Girls desiring to compete are urged to get in touch with the Management immediately.

Roses That Slept Outside All Winter Are Up and Growing

Arbor Day Finds Trees in Bud and Hepatica Blooming

Budding trees on the boulevards, unclouded skies and the merriest sort of a yellow sun greeted the dawn of Arbor day, and the commencement of the spring clean-up in Edmonton. Millions of roots that have been fast asleep underground felt a curious urge to be up and doing, and consequently gardens all through the city are beginning to show the little green sprouts of plants that will burst into summer bloom before many weeks. With the coming of flower planting days, one turns to consider the variety of blossoms offered by the seed catalogues, and promised by the co-operative efforts of gardener, sun, wind, and rain.

Roses for Edmonton

Many Edmonton flower lovers are turning their attention to roses this year. The day of the pioneer in rose growing is already past, and on Saturday alone one shop sold over 500 rose plants. Although a few Edmontonians have been quietly growing roses year after year, it has just dawned upon the prairie enthusiasts that Alberta might be a province of roses after all, with as little difficulty as is experienced in any other part of Canada.

Many gardens these spring days are filled with the strangely bare and stiff little branches that will be heavy with fragrant blossoms in July. Among these is the garden of Mr. W. V. Newson, deputy provincial treasurer and poet of growing note in the province. Mr. Newson has at present over 100 rose bushes in his garden, and secreted about his home, in sunny or shady places, as the variety demands. For three years he has been growing roses with the greatest success, and this year successfully wintered several of the precious plants.

Wintering of Roses a Problem

Wintering roses has been a question of great concern to Edmonton growers, as the early thaws and later frosts mean death to the tender plants if left in the ground. However, Mr. Newson, along with a few other adventurous gardeners, this year banked his east and westward running rows of plants with heavy boards along the sides to shelter them, and then gradually, as the autumn frosts approached, about the third week in October, began to build little mounds of earth around the plants. He watered them well and allowed the ground to freeze solid, and then covered it over well with leaves, and on top of that packed manure and earth. Thus it was that the early and deceptive sun could not get in, and the frost could not escape, until Mr. Newson and the weatherman in conference decided to dig the prisoners out. Gradually the leaves were taken away and the earth was removed. Mr. Newson made the record of having brought 26 rose bushes, out of 26 left outside, through the winter. In Ontario a four per cent loss is considered a very good average. Already the bushes are well away to growing, and the bloom will be early and luxurious, if one is to judge from the signs and last year's gorgeous showing made by Mr. Newson.

Hepatica in Bloom

The memory and fragrance of hepatica, palely beautiful in the early May of an Ontario wood, will return to many who glimpse these courageous little pastel shaded blossoms in some Edmonton gardens these days. The hepatica, brought by some Edmontonians from eastern Canada a few years ago, is already in abundant bloom in several west end gardens.

Many Mayfair Golfers Enjoy Week-End Games

Clear skies and a cool breeze blowing intrigued many enthusiasts to the golf links over the week-end. Mayfair club was in full swing for the season, and many charming little parties were arranged for games and tea and Saturday and Sunday. Among those on the links were: Mrs. William Griesbach, Miss Egbert, Mrs William Laidlaw, Mr. and Mrs. William Wilkin, Hon. J. E. Brownlee and Mrs. Brownlee, Dr. and Mrs. Edgerton Pope, Mr. and Mrs. William Dick, Hon. Baker and Mrs. Baker, Hon. Vernor Smith and Mrs. Smith, Colonel and Mrs. Frank Stewart Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Carpenter, Judge and Mrs. Frederick Morrison, Dr. and Mrs. Claude Jamieson, Mr and Mrs. James C. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. James A. McKinnon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foster Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. William Adamson, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund E. Trowbridge, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs William Macauley, Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford, Miss Lena Secord, Dr. and Mme. Sonet, Mr. and Mrs. William Brockie, Dr. and Mrs. Leslie Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. John Michaels, Dean Boyle, Mr. George Steer and Mr. Stanley Kerr.

CONNAUGHT HUNT CLUB

The Connaught Riding club held their first ride of the season in Laurier park on Sunday morning. Those who were in the field were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Horner, Miss Cecile Nightingale, Miss Jean and Miss Betty Wilkin, Miss Allison Ponton, Miss Francois Blais, Miss Nancy Bradley, Miss Kathleen Underwood, Miss Dorothy Dynes, Miss Elizabeth Macdonald, Mr. Robert Driscoll, Mr. Arthur Emery, Mr. William Overong, Mr. Frederick Martin, Mr. Burns and Mr. Dixon.

What's What

By HELEN DECIE

"I did not!"
"You did!"

The common admonition to children "Behave yourselves!" whether meant only to save trouble to the mother or not, is really a continuous precept in the course of good manners, which, when begun early, grows easier and more certain as the small boys and girls increase in age and in understanding. A rude child advertises something of commonness, if not of vulgarity, in the home. He makes no friends; instead, he is more than likely to antagonize former friends of his family.

Children should not be permitted to quarrel. Strife and contradiction ought to be checked at once. A child 2 years old is none too young to learn his first lesson in table manners. Well-behaved older children set a good example to the smaller folk. In a home where, no matter how lively the youngsters may be, they have acquired some of the principles of self-control, regard for the rights of others, and respect for their elders, life is made easier for the rest of the household, and for all visitors.

Clyde Gordinier Guest at Jolly Surprise Party

Many experiences have come to Mr. Clyde Gordinier, manager of the Gordiniers Players at the Pantages Theatre, in the course of a varied career, but none more overwhelming, perhaps, than his first party, which was given by Miss Mento Everett following Saturday evening's performance. Seeking a little peace and quiet at the home of a friend after the activities of a busy week, the manager was suddenly disturbed by a telephone call to the effect that all was not well at the Pantages. Rushing to the theatre in a car, he arrived on the stage to find the leading lady, Miss Everett, and the stage manager, Mr. Bill Watson, in serious and apparently not too congenial conversation over some matter of business. Flying the white flag Mr. Gordinier had just commenced to use his easing balm of peace, when the lights were switched on and the curtain was lifted to disclose about fifty friends waiting to congratulate the manager upon his birthday. Dancing to the music of the theatre orchestra and singing were enjoyed, after which supper was served. In the glow of the light from 18 candles, representative of the 18 weeks the Players have spent in Edmonton, Mr. Gordinier cut the birthday cake. Those present were: Miss Barbara Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crossley, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thompson, Mrs. Harry Coles and Miss Rita Coles, Miss Lotta Dempsey, Mr. and Mrs. A. Higenbottom, Mr. and Mrs. W. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Martin, Mrs. Martin of Indianapolis, the Misses Edith and Pauline Maloy, Messrs. L. Wolfe, W. Butters, W. Watson, G. V. Conlin, Otis Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Coghill, Mr. Jack Strachan, Mr. Ward Stone, Mr. Polley, Messrs Red Conlin, Clifford and Graydon Tipp, Murray Pawling, Wally Dalgleish, and Shirley Oliver, Miss Peggy Willis, Mr. Fred Steele, Miss Kay Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Turner, Mr. Charles Wilson, Mr. Charles Gray, Mr. J. L. Musgrove, Mr. A. Carr of Calgary, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dempsey.

Llanarthney Girls Put on School Fair

With its long drawing room and class rooms gaily decorated in spring flowers, greenery and pussy-willows, Llanarthney school was en fete on Saturday afternoon for the annual school fair, held in aid of funds for "The Torch," the school paper.

On tables arranged through the rooms, interesting exhibits, including maps of London at the time of Queen Elizabeth, a medal presented by Napoleon to a French nobleman, a replica of the medal struck in Germany in celebration of the sinking of the Lusitania, a collection of work done by Indian tribes as far south as Mexico and as far north as the Arctic circle, were on display.

Outstanding among the exhibits was a collection of china dolls dressed in colored wax, the work of one of the students, Miss Mary Mantle, whose entry attracted widespread attention at the Edmonton exhibition last summer. The collection included a replica of a boy scout, a girl guide, a pirate with his treasures, and dolls in pretty fancy dress costumes.

Mrs. Mayne Reid, wife of the president of the school, Mrs. George O'Connor and Mrs. Charles Bradley received with Miss Maddock, and the students, wearing the fresh white frock uniform of the school, served tea.

I.O.D.E. BRIDGE

The tea given by the educational committee of the Fort Edmonton chapter I.O.D.E. at the residence of Mrs. W. T. Henry on Saturday afternoon was a most successful one.

Mrs. R. C. Marshall, regent of the chapter and president of the provincial chapter, and Mrs. Knechtel, secretary of the educational council, received with Mrs. Henry.

Yellow tulips and blue iris were effectively used as decoration on the tea table, which was in charge of Mrs. Duncan Smith, Mrs. R. C. Marshall and Mrs. F. B. Hollands.

Mrs. Skarin ushered the guests into the tea room, where the assistants were Mrs. D. E. Cameron, Mrs. E. Williams, Miss Marjorie Williams and Miss Doris Henry.

REDDY FOX CONSULTS BOBBY COON

By THORNTON W. BURGESS (Copyright)

Reddy Fox had turned his back on the half-eaten chicken hidden in a bunch of grass and bushes on the Green Meadows. It had been the hardest thing to do that Reddy could remember, for his stomach fairly ached he was so hungry. But there might be danger there, and it was best to be safe. So Reddy turned and trotted away where he could neither see nor smell that chicken. He caught some grass-hoppers and he found a family of fat beetles. They were not very filling, but they were better than nothing. After a while he felt better, and curled up in a warm, sunny spot to rest and think. You see, he just couldn't get that chicken out of his mind.

"It may be that Farmer Brown's Boy has set a trap there," said Reddy to himself. Then he remembered that the chicken was half eaten, and he knew that it wasn't likely that Farmer Brown's Boy would have a half-eaten chicken unless he had found one that Jimmy Skunk had left near the hen-yard, and for some reason, he didn't know why, he had a feeling that Jimmy Skunk had not had anything to do with the stranger whose more he thought about it the more he felt sure that that chicken had something to dow ith the stranger whose voice had brought much fear to the Green Meadows. The very thought made him nervous and spoiled his sunbath.

So Reddy turned and trotted away

"I believe I'll run over and see Bobby Coon," said Reddy, and off he started for the Green Forest.

Bobby Coon had been out all night, but he had not been very far away from his hollow tree, because he, too had felt little chills of fear when he heard that strange voice, which wasn't the voice of Hooty the Owl or of Pippy the Loon, or of a little yelping dog, yet sounded like all three together. So Bobby's stomach wasn't as full as usual, and he felt cross and uncomfortable. You know, it is hard work to feel hungry and pleasant at the same time. He had just begun to doze when he heard Reddy Fox calling softly at the foot of the tree.

"Bobby! Bobby Coon!" called Reddy.

Bobby didn't answer. He kept perfectly still to try to make Reddy think that he was asleep. But Reddy kept right on calling. Finally Bobby scrambled up to the doorway of his house in the big hollow tree and scowled down at Reddy Fox.

"Well, what is it?" he snapped crossly. "You ought to be ashamed of yourself to disturb people who are trying to get a little honest sleep."

Reddy grinned. "I'm very sorry to wake you up, Bobby Coon," said Reddy, "but you see, I want your advice. I know that there is no one smarter than you, and I have just discovered something very important about which I want to know what you think."

The scowl disappeared from Bobby Coon's face. He felt very much flattered, just as Reddy meant that he should feel, and he tried to look very important and wise as he said:

"I'm listening Reddy Fox. What is it that is so important?"

Then Reddy told him all about the half-eaten chicken over on the Green Meadows, and how he suspected that the stranger with the terrible voice had had something to do with it. Bobby listened gravely.

"Pooh!" said he. "Probably Jimmy Skunk knows something about it."

"No," replied Reddy. "I'm sure that Jimmy Skunk doesn't know anything about it. Come over with me and see it for yourself."

Bobby began to back down into his house. "You'll have to excuse me this morning, Reddy Fox. You see, I'm very tired and need sleep," said he.

Reddy turned his head aside to hide a smile, for he knew that Bobby was afraid. "I'm sure it must have been Jimmy Skunk," continued Bobby. "Why don't you go ask him? I never like to meddle with other people's business."

And with that Bobby Coon backed down out of sight in the hollow tree.

Evelyn Parks' Pupils Give Attractive Dance Revue at Macdonald

Palms banked the entrance to the Macdonald ballroom on Saturday afternoon, and flowering plants made the tea tables attractive for the large and interested audience that attended the tea dance at which the pupils of the Evelyn Parks school of the dance presented a charming program. Unique in hte annals of dance revues in the city, the affair was attractively different, and the large number of children taking part gave a decidedly creditable display.

Many beautiful solo numbers were included in the affair, with the dances of Rhoda Wood, Betty Lauerman, Ruth Lawrie, Joyce Watts, Marie Jordan, Christie Robertson, Joyce Want, Eva Card, Ada Jones, Frances Broder, Betty O'Brien, Georgine Maloney, Helen Shirlaw, Beatrice Milan, Kathleen Chapman, Thelma Butlin and Lillian Chapman, including a variety of interpretations from lively step dances and clever Bowry numbers, to dainty doll dances and airy scarf and skirt solos. Colorful costumes figured in the brilliant display of military, Spanish, Irish, hunting, gypsy and tambourine dances, and there was a distinctive abandon and lightness in the butterfly numbers, the Kinkajou, the spring dances, Pierrot and flapper interpretations.

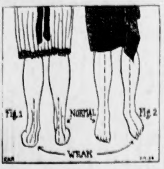
Littlest Fairies of All

The littlest fairies of all were adorable, and Marie Jordan and Betty O'Brien were two very clever toe dancers, with the magic of youth in their feet. Mr. H. G. Turner was in charge of the music.

The pupils presented by Miss Evelyn Parks on this occasion were: Peggy Aldridge, Violet Sutherland, Alice McQueen, Barbara Mitchell, Goldie Lauer, Kathleen Hawks, Alwin Hallett, Patricia Scott, Janice Rheinhart, Margaret Stone, Martha, Ruby and Dorothy Griggs, Helen Shirlaw, Chrissie Robertson, Eva Card, Ada Jones, Flora Watts, Joyce Watts, Beatrice Milan, Jean Rootes, Esther Milner, Betty Lauerman, Doris Flynn, Patsy Magee, Mary Irwin, Thelma Butlin, Marion Esch, Gracie Calhoun, Maxine McLeay, Elizabeth Mouro, Francis Moffat, Betty Moffat, Rhoda Wood, Kathleen Simpson, Lenna Simpson, Theresa Belanger, Loutia Hanley, Henriette Kantor, Dora McGloghan, Edna Brown, Irene Cairns, Alice Couter, Sarah Couter, Daisy Barr, Rita Coles, Dorothy Webb, Grace Blatchford, Dorothy Olsen, Maxine Lecs, Betty Ross, Joyce Want, Lilian Chapman, Kathleen Chapman, Francis Broder, Dorothy Haig, Therese Marty Josephine Sobcow, Edith Heavener, June Brown, Barbara Brown, Audrey Drummond, Doris Rueter, Ruth Laurie, Ila Saslow, Dorothy Laing, Phyllis Griffin, Marie Jordan, Joan Stewart, Betty O'Brian, Jane McDonald, Phyllis Harris, Bertha Wood, Georgina Maloney, Edith Baltzan, Ella Cristall, Jack Pollette and Doris Jordan.

Milady Beautiful

By LOIS LEEDS



There are different kinds of foot trouble with which every beauty seeker should become familiar in order to protect herself from them. As a general most women know a good deal less of the structure and care of their feet than about cosmetics and clothes, although the former knowledge is as fundamental to beauty and more necessary to health than is the external beautification of the face and figure.

Every one has heard of the trouble called flat-foot or fallen arch. The typical case of this disorder is very painful, but there are two less acute stages by which the last, most serious one is reached. Many people, young and old, suffer from one or the other of these less advanced conditions of the longitudinal arch which extends from the heel forward to the ball of the foot.

The first stage is called "weak foot." There is little outward indication of the trouble, but the feet tire easily and become swollen after moderate use. There is a tendency for the feet to roll toward the inner side. This may be clearly seen by looking at the bare feet directly behind. The big tendon is seen to bend inward at the ankle (Fig. 1) instead of rising straight to the calf. A front view of the feet placed in their habitual standing position will show the weak foot turning outward, instead of pointing straight ahead (Fig. 2). This condition is often met with in children and young persons. It accompanies a condition of general muscular weakness and faulty posture. Remedy is found in adjustment of the shoes and simple exercise.

If steps are not taken to strengthen the weak foot it soon passes to the next stage called "strained foot," and the symptoms and pain become more pronounced until a serious case of flat-foot is established.

There are a number of possible causes of progressive weakening and final falling of the long arch or instep. The primary cause is the disproportion between the strength of the structures and the strain to which they are subjected. This strain may be due to excess weight, standing for long periods, walking on hard floors or pavements, a sudden shock, incorrect posture by which the weight of the body is not well balanced, and last, but not least, ill-fitting shoes.

A simple way to check up on this last point is to make a tracing around the sole of your shoe on a piece of brown paper. Now moisten the sole of your foot and place it over the outline of your shoe. Compare the wet imprint of your foot with the drawing. You will probably notice that your great toe has to be bent inward from its normal straight position in order to fit into the shoe. This bending of the toe leads to a condition called hallux valgus which I shall describe later this week when I shall have something to tell about the falling of the interior arch of the feet.

Red Cross Societies Celebrate Centenary of Founder Tuesday

Tuesday, May 8, is the centenary of Henri Dunant, the humanitarian whose vision gave to the world the ideal of Red Cross. In his honor the Alberta division will give a special celebration program in the afternoon over the air from CJCA, commencing at 3:30. The program will be a unique one and of exceptional interest to the many friends of Red Cross in Alberta.

Capt. A. C. Adams, commissioner of Red Cross, will be the principal speaker, and will give an interesting talk on "What is done in Alberta under the Red Cross flag." Mr. Adams has returned this week from Toronto, where he has been attending the annual meeting of the society, and will have much of value to relate of the activities of Red Cross in the dominion.

Miss Davidson, R.N., director of home nursing, will give a talk to women on "Prospective Motherhood—What every woman wants to know." This address will contain valuable information for young married women and those contemplating matrimony.

The special feature of the afternoon will be presented by the Garneau Junior Red Cross, Grade Six, under Miss Burns, their teacher. These bright boys and girls will conduct a Junior Red Cross meeting in the usual manner, the chief item of the program being a play entitled, "Flag of Empire," in which six of their number take part.

From news received from several country towns, listeners are planning to have a Red Cross day around the radio, and women's clubs are in this way celebrating the founder's day of Henri Dunant.

Handicrafts Guild Will Give Yearly Prize

The sum of $180 was presented to the newly organized Alberta branch of the Canadian Handicrafts Guild by members of the former guild who have recently disbanded to co-operate with the new organization, at a meeting of the executive of the latter held in the Waunita rooms, the University of Alberta, on Thursday morning.

These monies will serve for a trust fund, the accruing interest to be used for a yearly handicrafts prize. The prize will be known as the Mrs. Percy Barnes prize, in compliment to the founder of the arts and crafts movement in Edmonton. Mrs. Barnes was keenly interested in arts and crafts in the city from 1911 to 1922, when she left for Toronto.

It was decided to hold a local exhibit, sale and tea in October, and Mrs. W. A. R. Kerr was appointed in charge of arrangements.

Reports of the organization of the branch will be broadcasted over C.K. U.A., as will also be particulars concerning the Handicrafts and New Canadian Folk Song Festival to take place in Winnipeg in June.

Passed Away After 49 Years' Work In India Mission Field

Word has been received in the city of the death of Dr. John Wilkie, of Gwalior Mission Field, India, who passed away on board ship en route from India to Canada. Dr. Wilkie, who is a native born Canadian and went to India from Parkdale church, Toronto, made many friends in Edmonton when he visited here a few years ago and gave several lectures in First Presbyterian church. He went to Gwalior Mission field in 1879 as a missionary from the Presbyterian Church of Canada, and with Mrs. Wilkie labored long and fruitfully there for many years. Having taken seriously ill, he was accompanied on the return voyage by Mrs. Wilkie and the mission field nurse, Miss Simpson, as far as Liverpool. He passed away on the ship which was due to arrive in Canada on Friday.

GIRL ALONE

By ANNE AUSTIN, Author of "SAINT AND SINNER".

THIS HAS HAPPENED

SALLY FORD, 16, ward of the state orphanage since she was four, is "farmed out" to CLEM CARSON. She meets DAVID NASH, athlete and student, who is working on the Carson farm during his vacation. David strikes Carson a crushing blow when he makes insinuations about David's friendship for Sally.

They run away and join a carnival — David as cook's helper, and Sally as "Princess Lalia," crystal gazer. In Capital City, location of the orphanage, Sally is recognized by one of a crowd of little orphans who come trooping into the show, chaperoned by a beautiful woman. She learns from ARTHUR VAN HORNE, an easterner, who annoys her with his attentions, that the beautiful chaperone is ENID BARR, wealthy New York matron.

Sally is puzzled at Enid's interest in her. David and Sally flee from the carnival and in the county seat are "half-married" when the ceremony is stopped by MRS. STONE, matron of the orphanage, and Enid Barr. Enid confesses she is Sally's mother but that she believed her child to be dead until recently. Enid separates Sally and David and for two years Sally is placed in a finishing school. When Enid sends out her invitations for Sally's coming-out party, Sally insists that she keep her promise made two years previously and send David an invitation. At her party Sally waits eagerly for David to come. When he arrives, she rushes to him, but he seems changed. Later she asks him if he does not love her any more. He tells her she must forget him. They are interrupted by an unexpected visitor. Arthur Van Horne stands at the door.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XLVI.

"Please don't go, David!" Sally implored, but he mistook her distress, occasioned by Arthur Van Horne's entirely unexpected appearance, for a plea for a longer interview which he knew would only cause them both pain.

He shook his head dumbly and strode for the door. He paused there a moment to bow jerkily first toward Sally, then toward Van Horne, who was watching the scene with amused cynical eyes

Pride, mercifully came to Sally's aid then; she closed her lips firmly over the question she had been about to fling at David with desperate urgency. She even managed to wave her hand with what she hoped was airy indifference as David opened the door.

"So!" Van Horne chuckled when the door had closed softly. "It's still Sally and David, isn't it? I'm glad I was vouchsafed a glimpse of this paragon. Astonishingly good-looking in a Norse viking sort of way, but rather a bull in a China shop here, isn't he? But I presume that is why Enid fondly hoped when she allowed him to come. I gather that she did invite him. A clever woman, Enid, I've always said so."

Sally's teeth closed hurtingly over her lower lip, but she said nothing. The pain and horror of David's uncompromising rebuff were still too great to permit room in her heart for fear of Van Horne. Of course he had recognized her at once. had undoubtedly recognized her from pictures in the papers, but what did it matter now? David was gone—gone—He had not even kissed her—

"Still afraid of me, Sally?" Van Horne laughed, as her eyes remained fixed on his face in a blind, unseeing stare.

"Afraid of you?" Sally echoed, her voice struggling strangely through pain. "Oh, you mean—?" She tried to collect her wits, to push aside the incredible fact of David's desertion, so that she could concentrate on Van Horne and the frightening significance of his presence here, coupled with his knowledge of her past.

"Dear little Sally!" Van Horne said tenderly, and Sally clenched her fist to strike him for using the words which had been heavenly sweet when David had uttered them so long ago. "I told you the last time I saw you that you had not seen the last of Arthur Van Horne, I meant it, but I give you my word I hardly expected to find you here! I spent the deuce of a lot of time and money trying to trace you after you left the carnival. Old Bybee finally told me that you'd run away and had probably married your David. So I took my broken heart to China, Japan, Egypt and God knows where. And now like the chap who sought for the Holy Grail, I find you at home waiting for me."

"I wasn't waiting for you," Sally contradicted him indignantly. "I was waiting for David and he's just told me that he doesn't want me. I hoped I'd never see you again!"

"Why, Sally, Sally!" Van Horne chided her, his black eyes full of mocking humor. "Don't you realize that I'm the oldest friend you have in this new life of yours? I really haven't got used to the idea of your being Enid Barr's daughter. Of course I knew there was something mysterious about her overweening interest in 'Princess Lalia' but this thick old head of mine wasn't functioning very well in those days. My heart was too full of that same lovely little crystal-gazer. But when I read the rather masterly bit of fiction in the papers, the story which good old asinine Courtney Barr gave out as to your parentage and his wardship which he had supplanted by a legal adoption, the old bean began to click again, and I can assure you I got a great deal of quiet enjoyment out of the thing. Fancy the impeccable Enid Barr's having a——"

"Oh, stop!" Sally commanded him, flaming with anger. "Don't dare say a word against my mother—I mean, against Enid—"

"Against your mother," Van Horne corrected her serenely. "Of course I haven't told anyone, Sally, and I don't really see why I should, if—Listen, child; don't you think we ought to have a long, comfortable talk about—old times? We're likely to be interrupted here any minute by a chaperone—or by your mother or by a couple of young idiots seeking a quiet place to 'neck' in. Slip out of the house when the show's over—the servants' entrance will be better—and we'll go for a drive through the pary."

"I shall do no such thing!" Sally repudiated the suggestion hotly. "I'm going back to the ballroom now. Please don't come with me."

When she arrived, breathless, at the door of the ballroom, she bumped into Enid, whose face was white and anxious and suddenly almost old.

"Darling, where have you been?" her mother whispered fiercely. "I've had Courtney and Randall and two of the footmen looking for you. This is your party, you know. You have other guests besides David Nash. I knew it was a mistake to ask him—"

"Where is he, Mother?" Sally interrupted rudely. "I've been with someone else most of the time." She could not bring herself yet to mention Van Horne's name to her mother for fear Enid would notice that something was sadly amiss.

"I haven't seen him," Enid protested. "But run along now and dance. 'It's the last dance before supper. Remember that Grant Proctor is taking you down. Do be sweet to him, Sally."

She would like for me to marry Grant Proctor," Sally reflected dully as she obediently let herself be drawn into the dance by an ardent-eyed young man whose name she could not remember. "She wants me to marry Grant Proctor, when I'm already half-married to David. But David doesn't want me! Oh, David!"

Just before supper was announced she slipped away to her own rooms, to cry the hot tears that were pressing against her eyeballs. And on her dressing table she found a note, undoubtedly placed there by her own maid. Her cold, shaking fingers had difficulty in opening it, for she knew at once that it was from David.

"Dear little Sally," she read, and the tears gushed then. "Forgive me for bolting like this, but I couldn't stand it any longer. You know I love you, that 'I'll be loving you always,' but you must also know that Sally Barr cannot marry David Nash, and that anything less would be too terrible for both of us. You must be wondering why I came. I wanted to see for myself that you were happy, that your mother is good to you, and, of course, I wanted to see you again. wanted to see if there was anything of my Sally in this beautiful Sally Barr that the papers are making so much of.

"I think it has made it harder for me to find that underneath the new surface you are still Sally Ford. But they'll change the core of you almost as rapidly as they have remade the surface of you into a society beauty. And after you're changed all through you'll be glad I went away. I'll carry my own Sally in my heart always, and the new Sally Barr will fall in love with the splendid young son of some old family, marry him and make her mother happy. She would never forgive us, Sally, if I took you away and made you live on what I can earn as a farmer, and she would be right not to forgive. I would not forgive myself, and after a while you'd be unhappy, too, remembering that you had lost, including a mother, who adores you. Goodbye, Sally. David."

She was so quiet, so white at supper, that Grant Proctor, who was already in love with her, begged her to let him give her a drink from his pocket flask, but she refused, scarcely knowing what he had said to her. Once she caught her mother's eyes, and shivered at the anxiety and reproach in them.

Suddenly a fierce resentment against Enid Barr rose and beat sickeningly in her blood. If she had not interfered, she and David would have been married long ago. They would have been happy in poverty, would have struggled side by side to banish poverty, might even have had a tiny David or Sally of their own by this time, and now David was irrevocably gone, so that Enid Barr might keep her daughter. Sally wanted to nurse her anger against her mother, but it was impossible to do so, for she loved her.

When the jazz orchestra was hilariously summoning the debutantes to the dance floor again Arthur Van Horne claimed Sally over the protests of the half dozen younger men who were good-naturedly wrangling for the honor.

"You're going to meet me after this foolish, delightful show is over, aren't you? Of course you are!" he smiled down upon her as he led her out upon the floor.

Sally looked up at him wearily and saw that there was more than amusement and gallantry in his narrowed, smiling black eyes. There was menace, which he did not try to conceal, wanted her to see—

"All right,' 'she nodded.

"You do love your mother, don't you?" he smiled significantly. "Maybe you'll learn to love Van a little, too. It would be — very wise."

It was half past four o'clock when the tireless debutantes were willing to call it a night. Sally braved the thing out, but her face was wan as she listened to the last compliment son the success of the party which had officially launched her into the circle of society to which her mother belonged by the divine right of inheritance and immense wealth.

"We'll talk it all over tomorrow, sweetheart," Enid said pityingly. "You run along to bed now. I've got to give a few instructions to Randall. And you'd better stay in bed all day, or until tea time anyway. You were marvelous tonight, darling. So beautiful, so sweet. These wild young flappers—but run along, daughter beloved. You look as if you might faint with fatigue. Have Ernestine bring you some hot milk."

It was ridiculously easy for Sally to slip out of the house, using the servants' entrance, as Van Horne had suggested. She found him waiting for her and submitted wearily to being led to where has car was parked, a block away.

"What do you want, Van?" she asked abruptly, when the car turned into Central Park from Fifth Avenue, at Eighty-fourth street, the wheels crunching the glazed crust of new snow.

"To talk with you and hold your hand and possibly kiss you—oh, very possibly!" Van Horne laughed at her, reaching for her hand.

"What did you mean when you said it would be 'very wise' for me to love you a little?" she persisted, too tired to be diplomatic. But of course she knew. He held her mother's security and happiness in the hollow of his hand. That he could destroy her own social career if he wished did not occur to her, for she had not yet learned to care about it, to prize it. But Enid must be protected at all costs.

"I think you know," Van Horne shrugged. "But why put it into words? Some things are much nicer unsaid, if they are distinctly understood. Now—will you kiss me, Sally I've waited a long time. Sweet child, and I'm naturally not a patient man."

"Not tonight," Sailly said in a low, flat voice, shrinking into her own corner of the seat. "Please turn at One Hundred and Tenth street and take me back home, Van, I'm utterly tired."

Van obeyed cheerfully, exultant over her indirect promise. When Sally was creeping exhaustedly up the stairs to her room, her mother, still dressed in her formal ball gown, came hurrying franticaally down to meet her.

"Darling, where have you been? I've been crazy with worry! How could you go out and meet that Nash boy so brazenly? Tonight of all nights!"

"It wasn't David, mother," Sally said in a dead-tired voice. "It was Arther Van Horne. He—knows—all about me. He's known all along."

In the next instalment Sally learns something new about the startling Van Horne.

Belanger Fights in 'Frisco Tonight

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Charlie Belanger, light heavyweight title holder of Canada, and Frankie Campbell, of San Francisco, meet tonight in a ten round bout in the armories. The pair will enter the ring with Belanger a favorite, odds switching to the northerner during his week of training here. Last Monday Campbell was a heavy favorite. Belanger has twice met Leo Lomski, losing a close decision in one bout and fighting a draw in the other.

Daisy Johnson Returns to Game as Grads Triumph Over British Columbia

COAST CITY GIRLS GAVE CHAMPS ROUSING BATTLE

Latest Challengers for Canadian Title Actually Out-Scored Locals in Two Exciting Periods—Final Score Was 40-24

BY KEN McCONNELL

Those basketball fans who have witnessed the Grads in action during the last two scheduled series will admit that the opposition given the world's champions has been so "hot" that many thrills have been derived therefrom.

In other years the visiting hoop teams merely came here for an honest-to-gash licking. They were usually satisfied for they expected nothing else.

OPPOSITION SEEMS TO BE STRONGER

But the series which have been played up to the present time, have not been "push-overs" for the champions. They have had to fight for the points in every game.

That means the opposition has strengthened and make no mistake about it, visiting teams have improved tremendously.

University of British Columbia played here Saturday in the first of a two-game series for the Canadian championship. Before a crowd of about 1,500 fans the B. C. ladies provided plenty of excitement and battled the Grads every inch of the way. The final score which reads 40-24 for the Grads, does not do the Co-eds full credit for they were much better than that count indicates and at no time, until the end, were the fans as comfortable as they have been in games which have been played here previously.

Nip-and-Tuck Scoring

Coming here with every intention of winning, despite the Grads' record, the B. C. representatives stepped into this game and actually out-scored the Grads for two periods. The scores at the end of each period tells a story. At the end of the first ten minutes the Grads were out in front 12-6; end of the second ten minutes it was 10-8 for B. C.; end of third ten minutes 6-5 for B. C. and then the Grads swung into prominence in the final period and outscored the challengers 15-2.

With the exception of the final chapter, however, the visitors had just as much play as the Grads. They were always "in there" battling and they have at least three players on the team who looked every bit as good as any three who opposed them.

How She Helped!

Probably one of the most outstanding performances turned in by any member of the Grad team in years was the "comeback" of Daisy Johnson, one of the greatest players that ever wore the famous black and gold uniform. Kate Macrae, the wonder guard of the present Grad lineup, was unable to play and, incidentally, will not be in tonight's game. So Daisy came back and believe me, men, she caused a number of thrills.

FINAL GAME TONIGHT

First game between Gradettes and All Star team picked from City Girls' Basketball league. Starts at 8 o'clock.

Second game, final of series for Canadian title between Commercial Graduates, defenders and University of British Columbia, challengers. Starts 9:10 o'clock.

Conductor Frank Aldridge of the Newsboys' Band will have his gladiators in action from 8:30 o'clock 'Tis a noble program. until the end of the Grad-B. C. game.

Everyone, previous to the start of the match, had tried to figure who might be in Kate's place. Mae Brown, sub forward, was the player finally selected to help the team out and Miss Brown, besides scoring three splendid baskets, turned in a sterling performance. But despite all she could do, playing in a new position, the visitors were breaking around her and, as Elsie Bennie would speed over to help out the new guard, a visitor would flash in from nowhere, coming in on Elsie's side and the attackers were successful a number of times in bringing in a basket.

Changed the Outlook

So as Coach J. P. Page watched the girls he decided that something had to be done. Daisy Johnson, early in the second period, was sent in as right forward, her old position, and Millie McCormack dropped back as guard. That proved a mighty strong combination. Daisy steadied the youngsters and followed her check as of old, stopping that young hopeful right in her tracks. The Grads, although forced to show their best, gradually regained confidence in themselves and when the final period opened they were going at top speed and out-scored their opponents 15-2.

What Might Have Been

It is hard to say just what might have happened if Daisy Johnson had not been in uniform and ready to enter this game. Both the Grad subs are forwards and, while they could be sent in to play guard, they were working under a big handicap. Miss Brown did exceptionally well, considering the circumstances, and the Grads might have come through with a victory, but their opponents would not have been very far behind, certainly not more than one or two points, and things would have looked different today.

Poor Crowd Saturday

Sixteen points behind the champions, the B. C. girls will play the final game tonight. It may possibly be the last match the Grads will play here this spring. They had merely 1,500 fans out at the Arena Saturday. There is no more certain way of convincing the Grads that all their efforts to win basketball titles and place Edmonton above all others on the sport map are in vain, than for only a handful of fans to attend their games. They refused to "take charity" in order to defend their world's championship at Paris this summer. They decided that if they were unable to raise enough money through scheduled games here this spring, then they would default and give up.

This is a fine state of affairs. Here we have a team, admittedly the greatest ladies' basketball team on earth, and because they win so consistently, and because they have won every title in existence, and because they are a credit to this city (we can think of no reason why they are not supported) the majority of the fans sit at home, content to hear the results over the telephone.

Let's All Go!

But the Grads will be supported. Every sportsman and sports woman in the city is interested in them—just listen to those telephones ring! Unfortunately they receive no revenue when you park at the telephone. Come out to the Arena tonight; your presence will be appreciated by the girls.

The lineups and scores:

Grads—Margaret MacBurney, 16; Millie McCormack, 4; Gladys Fry, 10; Mae Brown, 6; Elsie Bennie, 4; Daisy Johnson, Joan Johnson—Total, 40.

U. B. C.—Mahon, 6; Menton, 6; Whyte, 8; Tingley, 4, Bailey, Harris—Total, 24.

Clean Game

George Parney refered and handled the game well. There were only four personals, it being one of the cleanest games that has ever been played at the Arena. All four personals were drawn by the visitors, Miss Whyte getting three and Miss Tingley one.

She's a Daisy

Daisy Johnson who retired from game after 1926 season and who came back Saturday to help Grads turn back B. C.

Playing against the Great West Garment, the Gradettes went on the rampage Saturday night and really showed what they were capable of doing when pressed. The final score was 36-15.

The two Stone sisters, Helen and Edith, each garnered 10 points. Johnson, Cameron and Fuyarchuk were the best for the G. W. G.

The lineup and scores:

Gradettes—H. Stone, 10; Coulson, 2; E. Stone, 10; Kinney; Neale, 4; Metz, 2; Brown, 8—Total, 36.

G. W. G.—Johnson, 3; Cameron, 3; Fuyarchuck, 3; Shewchuk; Taylor; Brown, Gamble and Knutson, 6—Total, 15.

An inter-city golf match between Calgary and Edmonton has been arranged for Red Deer, and will be held May 29 under the auspices through the courtesy of the Red Deer Insurance Agents. Play will commence at 9 a.m. sharp.

It is proposed to limit the players to 30 from each city, being a total of 60 entries. In order to include members of the Blue Goose, twenty entries will be accepted from that organization, ten of whom will be assigned each day.

The whole object of the outing is to bring together the Insurance Agents of Calgary and Edmonton, so that whether you shoot at par or at 30 handicap, matters not at all.

Entries close on May 15. The fee to cover entertainment expenses at Red Deer is $2.50. Edmonton entries should be sent to H. Milton Martin; Calgary entries to be sent to R. J. Crighton.

The committee in charge is: H. Milton Martin, James O. Miller, Arthur T. Lowes, and E. S. Buchan.

BOWLING MEETING

An important meeting of the Highland Lawn Bowling Club is scheduled for Tuesday, May 8 at 8 o'clock at the rink corner, 62 street and 113 avenue. The city is willing to lease three lots in the Highlands for purposes of bowling greens. These lots can be made into a good bowling green at comparatively little cost.

The president would like a good turn-out of members and interested bowlers to consider this latest proposal. Also, arrangements will be made for the coming season's campaign.

Saturday's Results

Sons of England defeated Scona and, in this match, W. Croft made 102 not out, the first century of the season.

Civil Service beat Incogs. P. L. Johnson made 63 for the winners and J. H. Woodman took 8 wickets for 25.

Edmonton defeated King Edward Park 97 to 94. In this game Tommy Windsor took 8 wickets for 36 runs. Wanderers defeated Bonnie Doon 93 to 48. Bob Muter took 6 wickets for 15.

Civil Service vs. Incogs

This game resulted in a win for Civil Service by 137 runs to 83. Batting first, Civil Service made an impressive start having 77 runs when the fourth wicket fell. Percy Johnson played an exceptionally good innings and was all out for a century when given out L.B.W. to a very doubtful decision when he had compiled 63. Thomas who was in with him at the time finished with 19 not out. Lew Jones bowled well getting six wickets for thirty. The Incogs started out with every intention of getting the runs although they had only one hour and three-quarters to get them.

With half the side out for 39, things looked anything but "rosy" and although Middleton-Brookes and young Stan Jones, played well, it was a little more than they could do. The bowling of Woodman in his first game of the season being the main reason for the batsmen's downfall. The analysis will show the remarkable performance—eight wickets for twenty-five runs.

Civil Service with a little better fielding, could have sut down the Incogs total considerably, although no extras were allowed, and those catches made were of the spectacular variety, particularly C. A. Davidson's catch of J. Wear.

WATSON SCORES CENTURY TWICE

Heavy Scoring Saturday In English County Cricket

LONDON, May 7.—Centuries continued to be scored in English county cricket on Saturday, Watson, playing for Lancashire against Northamptonshire at Manchester, securing the first double hundred of the season.

The West Indians gave an impressive display against Derby at Derby. Getting rid of the County for 150, the West Indians, when stumps were drawn, had scored 107 runs for one wicket. Challenor was not out with 70 runs to his credit.

Closing time scores were: Middlesex 339, Worcester 27 runs for 5 wickets.

Surrey, 459, Hampshire 19 runs for one wicket; Derby 150, Westindians 107 for one wicket; Glamorgan 129 Warwick 192 for 4 wickets; Notts 229, Sussex 125 for no wickets; Lancashire 528 for 4 wickets (Watson 223, Hallows 100, E. Tyldesley 140 not out). Cambridge University vs Leicestershire at Cambridge: Cambridge 381 (Morgan 110, Langfield 120, Astill 6 wickets for 79).

Phillip Granville In Fourth Place Now

GARY, Ind., May 7.—Phillip Granville, Hamilton, retained fourth place in the bunion derby field last night after finishing tenth in the 28.4 mile lap from Chicago in 8, 41, 10. His elapsed time for the 2,430.7 miles from Los Angeles was 435, 22, 27.

Thomas Ellis, also of Hamilton, was twelfth in 8, 59, 06—461, 59, 17.

John Cronick, Saskatoon, was thirteenth in 4, 07, 13—461, 17, 28.

David Davies of Sandwich, Ont., quit the long grind last night in Chicago.

Peter Gavuzzi, of Southampton, England, leader of the race, came in fourth Sunday, boosting his lead over his nearest opponent, Andrew Payne of Claremore, Okla. The Englishman's time for the lap was 3, 32, 25, giving him a total elapsed time of 394, 48, 25.

Payne came in seventh, bringing his elapsed time to 400, 57, 48. He made the lap in 3, 49, 50.

Famous Bremen Fliers Attend Game On Sunday

NEW YORK, May 7.—Before 60,000 persons, among them the Bremen fliers, Fitzmaurice, Von Huenefeld and Koehl, the Yanks defeated the White Sox Sunday, 4 to 2, for the third straight time. Fitzmaurice threw out the first ball.

Stanley Coveleskie, veteran spit ball pitcher, started his first game for the Yanks and got credit for the victory though Moore had to finish for him.

Home runs by Gehrig, Dugan and Barrett featured Gehrig's coming with Koenig on in the first.

Sam Gray hung up his sixth victory of the season at Washington, hurling the St. Louis Browns to a 7 to 6 decision over the Senators in 11 innings. The game was a thriller. In the fourth inning Manager Harris tripled to score three runs and in the ninth Judge prolonged the result by a sharp single through the box which scored two more.

Haskell Billings held the Boston Red Sox to two hits and the Tigers won today's game at Detroit 3 to 0. Both of Boston's blows were made by Buddy Meyers, the former Washington infielder, now playing third for the Red Sox.

Three games scheduled.

BLAKE TURNS BACK PHILADELPHIA 5-4

NEW YORK, May 7.—Pat Malone came to Sheriff Blake's rescue with the bases loaded in the seventh inning at Chicago Sunday and the Cubs defeated Philadelphia, 5 to 4, in 11 innings. Malone's fast ball mystified the Phillies. He struck out eight men and held them to but one run and that came in the seventh when the bases were jammed with none out. The winning run came when Hack Wilson sent up a sacrifice fly to Williams and Beck scored.

Brilliant fielding enabled the Reds to win the second game of the Cincinnati series from the New York Giants in ten innings Sunday, four to three. The Reds won with none out in the tenth when Critz started with a single.

The Cardinals and the Brooklyn Robins divided a double header at St. Louis, the Cards taking the first game 4 to 2, and the Robins overcoming Tony Kaufmann in the second for a five to four score.

The veteran pitcher, Grover Cleveland Alexander, and Wallie Roettger, young Cardinal outfielder, brought the Cards out in the lead in the first game. Roettger hit a home run off Dazzy Vance with a man on base.

Gets Home Run

Chick Hafey showed his punch in the second game, hitting a home run with two men on base to tie the count and driving in another tally later with a single to put the Cards in the lead but the Robins drove in two more in the eighth. The games were played before 33,000 fans.

MANY THOUSAND SOCCER FANS AT OLD COUNTRY MATCHES

Despite Cricket Attractions Football Games Drew Huge Crowds—Tottenham Hotspur Dealt Cruel Blow—Everton Presented With Cup

LONDON, May 7.—Soccer vied with cricket as a sporting attraction in England Saturday. Matches in both varieties of sport were played under a b[illegible]ing sun. Despite the ideal cricket weather many thousands were attracted [illegible]cer matches, which, on account of the tangled condition of the clubs in th[illegible]ngs were thoroughly interesting.

[illegible] past soccer season will long be remembered as one in which form was continually upset and in which Saturday's fixtures, the last of scheduled games in England, were no exception. Fate which has been fighting against the Tottenham Hotspurs, one of the historic clubs in England, dealt them a final cruel blow, firstly through Manchester United and secondly through The Wednesday. Both the Manchester and Sheffield clubs some weeks ago seemed doomed to relegation from the first to the second division.

TOTTENHAM MIGHT HAVE BEEN SAVED

Tottenham would have been saved Saturday if Manchester had drawn their game and the Wednesday had lost. As it was both won very impressively. London, moreover, suffers a dual blow, because Fulham, who on goal average could have afforded to lose, if Clapton Orient had been beaten, are now pushed down into the third division with South Shields. The metropolis, however, has secured consolation from the fact that Millwall, who have played fine football all season, come up into the second division.

The "needle" matches in the first division were naturally the games in which the teams facing demotion were engaged. Thirty thousand turned out at Manchester to see the United team defeat Liverpool by six goals to one. The Manchester team led at half time by four goals to one through goals by Spence and Rawlings, each of whom scored twice. Hodgson scored for Liverpool. Spence completed his hat trick after the turn round. Hanson registered Manchester's sixth tally.

Aston Villa Loses

Forty-five thousand saw The Wednesday beat Aston Villa, who earlier in the week had humbled Huddersfield Town and given the championship of the first division to Everton. The teams were dead-locked without score at half time. Allen and Trotter netted for The Wednesday in the second half.

Middlesbrough did not lack for local support in their crucial game with Sunderland. Over 40,000 were there to urge them to win. Sunderland took a lead in the first half through Wright and Halliday and Death added a couple more after the interval. Middlesbrough accompany the 'Spurs into the second division.

Disappointing Matches

In the second division the matches of Manchester City and Leeds United, upon which the championship depended, were disappointed. Manchester City were beaten by Notts County and Leeds by Stoke City. Manchester wins the championship and with Leeds enter the first division next season.

Everton were the proudest and happiest club in soccer on Saturday. After playing a drawn game with Arsenal, in which Dean, the great Everton forward, did the hat trick, they were presented with the league cup by John M. Kenna on behalf of the English league. Dean indeed finished up the season in a blaze of glory because his three goals in the last game enabled him to beat Camsell's record of 59 goals in one season by one.

Does "Hat Trick"

J. Robson, playing for Grimsby against Preston North End, did the hat trick, scoring all his three goals within three minutes of one another. Cameron of Preston tried to emulate Robson and actually got three goals. Harris of Oldham was credited with the hat trick against Hull City.

LEGION DRAWS WITH CALLIES IN FINE GAME

First Division Match Was Best of Season—Score 4 - 4

With one second to go before full time, Callies, Saturday evening, in a first division league match, were presented with a wonderful opportunity to triumph over the Canadian Legion in what was undoubtedly one of the finest soccer matches played here this spring. But the Callies, strange to say, passed up their big chance and the game ended a draw, 4-4.

It happened thus: the Callies were awarded a penalty kick. Tommy Robb, goalie of the Legion, proved the hero of the game when he made a sensational save, turning the ball around the post. The game was over.

At the end of the first half the score was 2-2.

The Legion were without Bill Findler who was badly injured while at work Saturday and Frank Lamb will be out of the game for a few weeks and probably for the rest of the season, as he fractured his knee-cap.

Just Over Line

Just one minute after the start of the game Bobby Sneddon put the Callies ahead. Coming back strong, the Legion attacked and finally McKeegon, centering to Charlie Pugh, paved the way for the Soldiers' first tally. Wallis stopped the shot, but the ball was just over the line and referee Billy Griffiths awarded a goal.

Jimmy Ross carried the attack of the Callies right in on top of Robb. The latter made a great save but, in attempting to clear, he carried the ball, taking too many steps. And the Callies were given a free kick. Robb stopped the drive, but could not hold the ball and Armstrong, breaking through a scrimmage in front of the Legion goal, kicked the ball into the hemp.

Pugh Tallied

Just before half-time Johnny Wilson let Cavanagh and McKeegon away on the left. McKeegon got in close, drove at Wallis and the latter, playing his usual good game, made a splendid save and, as had happened to Robb a few moments previously, he was unable to secure possession of the ball. Charlie Pugh rushed in and booted the ball into the nets.

Continuing the hot pace set in the first half the two teams battled through another forty-five minutes of glittering soccer. Charlie Pugh sent the Legion into the lead when he got his third goal, completing the hat trick, shortly after the final half started.

Tied Again

Then Jock Davidson tore in from the left and scored for the Callies, making the score 3-3. Again the Legion, after attacking, were successful, this time Turner scoring. Then it remained for the Callies to draw even, Bobby Gneddon finally sinking the ball behind Robb for the tying goal and the teams left the field with the score tied 4-4.

SETTLER FLOW TO EDMONTON IS UNDER WAY

More than 720 single men and seven families comprising an extra 8 persons arrived in Edmonton this last week over the Canadian National Railway. These settlers are all of a good class, and the majority are either German or British, with a few Scandinavians and other nationalities.

The immigration department is finding a great demand for this type of settler, and is unable to fill the orders for farm help that it has on hand. The immigrants coming into the country now are of a type that is suited for conditions here. The railway agents in the old countries are concentrating their efforts on the rural districts so as to get a class of settler suited for farming.

More than one thousand homesteads were taken up last year by immigrants brought out under the C.N. R. plan.

There will also be quite a heavy arrival of settlers here this week, including a good percentage of the family type of immigrant.

At Tofield there are located nine Holland families with 65 adults and 47 children. These families are all located within four miles of each other, and every member of the families is of working age and are all employed. The net earnings of one family last month were over $200. It is expected that these people will all be settled on farms of their own before this time next year.

Tokio where the diet was reported in extraordinary session to solemnly consider relations with China.

Assurances of the safety of the British, American and German communities limited the issue to Japan and nationalist China.

The Japanese troops at Tsinan, wearied by several days of fighting and with the tension of uninterrupted guarding of their nationals concentrated in the consulate and its vicinity, have been relieved by 2,000 soldiers who had made a forced march overland from Tsingtao under Major Gen. Toakura.

The latest Japanese accounts are calculated to strengthen the advocates to Tokio taking strong measures as the result of the Tsinan trouble. The Japanese consul there, in a measure giving the first details of the sufferings of his civilian compatriots, said at least 14 had died cruelly at the hands of the Nationalists. The bodies, including those of men, were found with unmentionable mutilations, he said, and others were defaced beyond recognition.

Death Roll Grows

He stated that some of the women who have survived had been assaulted and feared that the death roll will be still larger after a complete check. At least 100 Japanese houses wrec pillaged. Twenty wounded had been brought to a place of safety.

Japanese military officials place the casualties even higher and state their belief that there were possibly 100 Japanese civilians killed. Searching eign settlement and the walled city parties, recovering the bodies of Japanese in the area between the forwhich was a sort of no mans land, found several which had apparently been buried alive while others had been burned after drenching in kerosene and hastily buried by the Chinese as if to hide evidence of these deaths.

While the Nationalists and Japanese have made counter-charges that the incident originated with the other, a neutral version is not available nor will it be until normal communications are restored, meanwhile the Japanese versions are the determining factor for they will dictate the next move, which is now in the hands of Tokyo.

Humiliation Day

Today, May 7, is "humiliation day," the anniversary of Japan's ultimatum of 21 demands in 1915. Since that year the day throughout China has annually been the occasion of anti-Japanese demonstrations. It now occurs in what is considered the gravest Chino-Japanese crisis since the 1915 war threat.

The Japanese in Tsinan are reported still in a state of siege, although quiet for the moment, with foodstuffs running low and electric and other public services not functioning.

The official Chinese feeling in Pekin is divided between relief at the setback of the Nationalists and anxiety lest Japan seize the occasion to resume military and economic domination of the province of Shantung.

It is accepted by all hands that the revolutionary drive toward Pekin is halted, perhaps for months, perhaps permanently. It is undeniable that Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek is discredited and the unity of his command badly shaken.

To Sever Relations

SHANGHAI, China, May 7—The Nationalist Kuomin News Agency Sunday announced that plans were under way to sever all economic relations with Japan in retaliation for the action of that country in Shantung province.

These plans would put a stop to the purchase of Japanese goods of all kinds and the sale of Chinese goods to Japanese and Chinese employed by Japanese would be asked to resign their connections.

The agency announced that a mass meeting be held tomorrow to perfect plans for this boycott, following which the students' union plans to launch a campaign against all relations with Japan.

The news agency also said that schools, shops and factories in Shanghai would be closed tomorrow in protest against "the massacre of Nationalist officials and civilians at Tsinan by the Japanese."

It was said that the chamber of commerce, students' union and labor unions have telegraphed the Nanking government to establish "a strong policy for national self-defence and pledging support for such action."

Mediation Tried

NANKING, China, May 7—In a statement telegraphed from Tsinan and dated Friday, General Chiang Kai-Shek, leader of the Nationalist army, said that the British and American consuls were mediating between himself and the Japanese.

He added: "The Japanese troops have challenged us. For no reason whatever they fired upon our soldiers and civilians and more than a thousand of our officials, soldiers and civilians have been killed. The Japanese malice and oppression are beyond description. I cannot bow to such bullying. I propose to expose such Japanese deliberate brutality to the world."

Generals Warned

TIENTSIN, China, May 7—Commander Aria, of the Japanese force here Sunday warned Gen. Sun Chuan Fang and Gen. Chang Tsung Chang not to continue military activity in the province of Shantung. They had been reported to be preparing an attack on the southern forces at Tsinan, taking advantage of the present chaotic conditions.

Radio communication from Tsinan was again threatened today when a northern aeroplane bombed the Tsinan power station which supplies current to the Japanese wireless. Considerable damage was said to have been done at the station.

Shanghai advices told of arrangements for an extensive boycott of Japanese goods and resignation of Chinese employed by Japanese.

All Japanese women were taken on board ships at Ichang, on the Yangtse river, in the province of Hupeh. At Nanking, the scene of the violent disorder of March last year, the women were concentrated at the water-front in readiness for embarkation if this was thought advisable. Similar preparations were made at Chen-Kiang, a little below Nanking, and at Kiukiang, in Kiangsi province.

Much Anxiety

To reinforce the Yangtse river patrol an additional destroyer division was ordered to Shanghai. While the Japanese garrison at Tsinan has been reinforced to a total of more than 4,000 men, an additional 2,700 troops were steaming from Manchuria to Tsingtao where they will land with Tsinan as their destination.

In Pekin there was anxiety lest Japan seize the present occasion to resume military and economic domination of the province of Shantung. Assurances of the safety of British, American and German communities at Tsinan limited the issue to Japan and nationalist China. The rifles at Tsinan have been silent since Friday and General Kai-Shek, Nationalist commander-in-chief, is discredited and the unity of his command broken.

The revolutionary drive toward Pekin has halted, perhaps for months, perhaps permanently. In the meantime the position of the northern armies grows stronger.

DEMAND CHANGE

ers intended to reach the capital ahead of the peasants by travelling by railroad.

The Associated Press correspondent, who rode from Kleusenburg (Cluj) toward Bucharest, met many peasants moving toward the capital with banners which were unfurled. Others were sitting around camp fires by the roadside.

The peasants, with raised hands, took this oath:

"We swear to the great and good God to fight a righteous fight against the government which is a plague to this country and which was nominated by a decree wrung from King Ferdinand on his death-bed. We swear that a new Rumania should be created which shall stand for freedom and justice to all of Rumania's brave sons."

To frustrate any attempt at open revolution, the government employed 10,000 troops at strategic points outside the city with machine guns and aeroplanes. No atempt was made, however, to molest the peasants.

Premier Bratianu, at Bucharest, termed the peasant congress merely an episode in the opposition fight against the government which, he said, enjoyed the confidence of the people.

Would End Regency

One resolution passed by the congress was interpreted as meaning that if Julio Maniu, leader of the Peasants' party, obtained power, he might recommend the abolition of the regency, which rules for the six-year-old king, Michael, and this in time might leave the door open for former Crown Prince Carol either as a regent or as King.

Says Carol Responsible

LONDON, May 7.—The London Express says it has learned that Prince Carol, now visiting in Surrey, is the central figure in an astounding plot to overthrow the Rumanian government and seize the throne of his young son, King Michael.

The newspaper says that British aeroplanes had been chartered to carry thousands of manifestos and scatter them over Rumania, but that the British government learned of the plot and forbade them leaving Croydon.

GODSTONE, England, May 7.—While 200,000 peasants Sunday met in Albajulia, Rumania, to demand a party change in the government of Rumania, the exiled father of their king, Prince Carol, awaited news of their action with friends in this Surrey village. He is visiting at "Oakhurst," the estate of his countryman Jonescu.

"I am waiting and if Rumania calls, as I think she may, I will answer," Prince Carol told a representative of the Associated Press.

Correct Statement

GODSTONE, Surrey, Eng., May 7—Prince Carol of Rumania, now visiting with a fellow countryman here, told the Associated Press today that while he had no special plan or time for his return to Rumania, he would respond "when called."

The prince said that the manifesto under his signature which appeared in print this morning, stating that he was ready to return to Rumania if the call should come, was a correct statement of his views of the Rumanian situation.

Referring to reforms mentioned in the manifesto such as free election, the freedom of the press, separation of the army and judiciary from politics, abolition of monopolies, and aid for the peasants, Prince Carol said:

Not Party Man

"These are my ideas for the future government of Rumania."

"I have no connection whatever with any political party in Rumania," he said. "I merely took the opportunity of the peasants party meeting at Albajulia for the issuance of the manifesto in order to avoid possible bloodshed among my people."

The prince denied, however, any knowledge of two aeroplanes he is supposed to have ordered for carrying the manifesto to Rumania. "I know nothing of the manner of its distribution," he said.

The manifesto, of which 20,000 were printed in London, were said to quote Carol as asserting:

Left Unwillingly

"I wish to return by your will to lead Rumania to its rightful place in the world. I wish to return to my child and make him a worthy successor of the dynasty. I declare that I left my country unwillingly, compelled by unhappy circumstances. Madame Lupescu, (with whom Carol eloped) was not the cause of my leaving and she will not prevent me from doing my duty to my country."

The Daily Express said that Carol was to declare his claim to the throne and announce his intention of having Michael abdicate in his favor. Michael was to enter an English school and eventually reign as a democratic monarch.

Carol, himself, however, asserted that he did not meddle in the politics of his country, when asked to comment on the peasant congress.

"I hold myself above party," he declared, "and am concerned only with the welfare of my country."

The Tuxis and Trail Rangers are sponsoring the Westminster Glee Singers, now touring the world, who will sing in Edmonton May 18 and 19. The main idea underlying its enterprise is to bring into prominence the national music of the old country. The choir will sing anthems, glees, madrigals, Irish, English and Scottish folk songs, carols and English ballads.

TORONTO, May 7—Declines outnumbered gains on the Toronto Mining exchange this morning. The market was fairly active, with slightly more than half a million shares changing hands. Amulet, with a decline of 15 to $3.25, led the declines, while Hollinger, Consolidated, up 10 at $15.10, showed the greatest gain. Argonaut, heavily traded in, was unchanged at 8, while Barry Hollinger, another active stock, was down ¾ at 83¾. Noranda was up 5 at $20.75. Teck Hughes was down 5 at $9.40, while the new Wright-Hargraves issue gained 10 at $4.50.

Montreal Stocks

MONTREAL, May 7—Today's forenoon session on the local market was just a continuation of the bullish demonstration which has been going on for weeks now. Five issues have scored new high records, while many others sold at new high levels, either for many years, or for present movement. Although P. Lyall has still a long distance to go to touch the high record of 165 registered in 1919, it nevertheless moves forward with great rapidity. From a previous close of 104 the price opened at 106 and within a few minutes had climbed to a peak of 117. It later eased to 111 and closed at 115 for a net gain of 11 points. In the same group Canadian Alcohol "B" stock scored a new record price at 47½, a gain of ½ point. Alcohol voting stock was one of the most active on the list and duplicated its previous best price of 50, closing at 49¾. Steel Co. of Canada opened 5½ points higher at 26, touched a high of 228 and finishing at 225 with a net gain of 212. Dominion Bridge, one of the most popular issues, reacted to 95⅛ from a high of 93¾, and a previous close of 96. International Nickel was ¼ up at its close of 91¾. All three steamship issues scored new high records, the common gaining 3 points to 45, the preferred, 1½ to 98½ and the voting trust 1 point to 43.

DIRIGIBLE AT SPITZBERGEN

KINGS BAY, Spitzbergen, May 7.—General Umberto Nobile landed his dirigible Italia here at one o'clock Sunday afternoon, successfully completing his flight from Vadsoe, Norway, despite extremely unfavorable weather conditions.

The journey from Vadsoe, began at 8:31 Saturday night, was far from a pleasant one for the crew of the big airship, for a heavy snowfall and strong contrary winds were encountered throughout the night.

The Italia was in constant wireless communication with the steamer Citta di Milano, the ship which will serve as a base for Nobile's Arctic flights, and the Geofysiske institute at Tromsoe, which supplied detailed weather conditions prevailing in the territory the Italia was approaching.

Gen. Nobile plans several flights during the next two months, exploring parts of the Arctic regions hitherto unvisited or about which there is controversy. He also plans to revisit the North Pole, which he first flew over in the dirigible Norge last summer.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, May 7—Buying orders poured into the stock market from all sections of the country today and prices leaped upward in impressive fashion. Extreme gains in the active issues ranged from 3 to nearly 15 points.

There was a brisk demand for such high grade issues as American Telephone, International Telephone, American Bank Note, American Can, Canadian Pacific and Jersey Central, all of which advanced 3 to 15 points to new peak prices. Operations by powerful speculative pools stimulated the demand for a large flock of non-dividend paying shares, the rise in which was associated with all sorts of merger and dividend rumors.

Banks called about $15,000,000 in loans by early afternoon, but there appeared to be a large surplus of funds available at the renewal rate of five per cent. on call loans.

Short covering accelerated the rise in many specialties, particularly those in which the floating supply was small. Electric Auto Lite soared nearly 14 points to a new peak at 203¾. American Bank Note extended its gain to nearly 8 points by touching 137. Canadian Pacific climbed 7½ points to 221, the highest price in twelve years, and Jersey Central sold at 375 for the first time since 1912. General Motors ran into heavy profit-taking after creating a new peak at 210, but held within a few points of that level. Gains of 2 to 5 points were scattered throughout the list.

The closing was strong.

Total sales approximated 4,500,000 shares.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, May 7—Market was largely a professional affair today and the net result was a small decline. Although there was heavy selling of the current delivery at times, the nearby wheat showed a tendency to gain on the later months. A sharp decrease in stocks on passage is a factor which is likely to cause further narrowing of the spread between Liverpool and our market, especially in view of the fact that what little information we can get from Europe indicates that their crop is doing none too well. Crop advices from our southwest reports estimated that recent progress had not been any too satisfactory. We continue to feel that the influence on winter wheat pretty well run its course unless the government of Wednesday shows a material change from the private crop reports. Spring wheat territory will therefore be the influence to be most carefully watched during the next few weeks.

Corn, like wheat, moved around rather rapidly and the result was practically a draw. Receipts were a little larger than anticipated, but a very large percentage of the car lots came from other markets direct and were not on sale. Corn coming from Iowa is of a better quality than we have been having earlier in the year and is bringing good prices based on the futures. We expect to see a continued rapid reduction in the stocks of corn and oats and believe that both these grains bought on moderate reactions, will prove to be good property for the holder.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, May 7—Wheat scored material fresh upturns in price early today, owing mostly to persistent dry cold weather west and southwest. Offerings were light. Opening at ⅜ to 1⅜c advance, wheat fluctuated rapidly at near to the initial range.

Corn started ⅛c to 1 cent up and subsequently continued firm.

Oats were higher.

THE short rail haul to and from the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan and Vancouver, B. C. has a direct effect upon the welfare of Western Canada. Actually, freight rates affect the business and commerce of the West. Commodities shipped by the short rail haul to Vancouver, via the Panama Canal to Great Britain, Europe and South America have the saving benefits of lower freight costs. Shipments from the Atlantic seaboard to Prairie points are also favored with lower rates owing to the short rail haul from Vancouver. All shippers and consignees should write for the "Via Vancouver Freight Intelligence and Information File"—a comprehensive compilation of freight rates costs data, all ready for the regulation office filing cabinet. BRITISH OPEN STARTS TODAY

Courses Are in Good Shape Great Crowds At Sandwich

SANDWICH, England, May 7.—The hosts of golf are massed on this Kentish shore where history of golf has been made. Today the battle starts for the classic British open championship which Bobby Jones, Walter Hagen and other Americans have won six times in the last seven years.

Both the prince's and St. George courses were in excellent condition Sunday with ideal weather.

Abe Mitchell and George Duncan played Saturday. Mitchell is tremendously popular with the British. If Mitchell and Compston fail Britain in her hour of golfing need, there are other famous names to fall upon, George Duncan, the Whitecombe brothers, Aubrey Boomer, the Channel islander, Arthur Havers, Ted Ray, Fred Robson and the younger school Jack Smith, long distance driver, and Henry Cotten, a schoolboy who took up golf as a professional and has made good progress.

A famous triumvirate of now venerable pros, Harry Vardon, James Braid and J. S. Taylor, with the still older Alex Hard, doubtless will be heard from but they can hardly be expected to stand in the front rank.

Today some backing was lent to Arthur Havers in addition to Compston and Mitchell, and a half a dozen other Britishers are favored generally.

Walter Hagen who was so badly beaten by Compston a week ago, would have ruled a favorite but he is pretty much chastened by his ignominious defeat. "I'm worse than ever," he said today.

Havers had a low score of 69 in a practice round today.

Harry Vardon picks Havers as the probable winner. He says Havers is hitting the ball better than any of the others.

TOM NEWMAN DEFEATED

LONDON, May 7.—Davis of Chesterfield, won the British professional billiards championship Saturday when he defeated the title holder, Tom Newman, 16,000 points to 14,874. The match was played at Thurstons Hall, London.

Is one man essential to the business?

If so, what would happen if he disappeared from the scene? A "Long Term Endowment" Policy would provide the capital to tide the business over a period of tight credits and the difficulties of finding a substitute.

B.C. SPRINTER SETS RECORD

Wins 100 Yards Dash in Fast Time of 9.9 Seconds

SEATTLE, Wash., May 7.—Percy Williams, of the high school of commerce, Vancouver, B. C., brought the spectators at the University of Washington relay carnival to their feet Saturday when he flashed over the cinders in the high school 100-yard dash in 9.9 seconds. He set a new record for the event, breaking the old mark of 10.2. His time equalled that Sunday of the Pacific coast conference event, won by Wesley Foster, negro star of Washington state college. The Vancouver high school was credited with a second record when the 880 yard relay team, with the aid of the flashy Williams, won that event in 1, 33, 6, breaking the old mark of 1, 36, 1. The other members of the team, Wese, Scott, Dixon and Hendry.

CANADIANS IN GREAT VICTORY

Hamilton Athletes Capture Title at Marquette Relay Carnival

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 7.—A Canadian invasion of the United States was climaxed by victory when track stars of Central Collegiate Institute, Hamilton, captured the national championship trophy at the annual Marquette relay carnival Saturday.

Youths carrying the colors of 75 schools participated.

The Canadians from Hamilton flashed across the finish line first in four events and placed second in a fifth. Their accomplishments easily gave them the national championship trophy. They turned in their most brilliant performance in the mile relay where the proteges of Capt. J. R. Cornelius, former Canadian Olympic coach, approached within a second of the inter-scholastic national record. Their mark of 3, 28, 2 was one of the new meet records they contributed. Another was their time of 8, 34, 5 in the two mile relay. Hamilton runners won the sprint relay and the distance relay and were second in the 880 yard relay.

Humerside Collegiate Institute of Toronto, appearing for the first time, placed in the distance relay, finishing second just behind central institute.

Great Britain Goes Into Second Round Of Davis Cup Play

TORQUAY, England, May 7.—Great Britain won both singles matches from Argentina Saturday and qualified for the second round of the Davis cup tennis play with a record of four victories in five matches during the three day series.

The South Americans, after splitting the singles matches Thursday, lost the doubles Saturday and were able to win but one set in the play. England now will play the winner of the Jugo-Slavia-Finland engagement for the fight to advance through the second round.

Edward Higgs, British star, clinched the series for England by taking the first of the two singles contests from W. E. Robson. The win gave Great Britain the necessary three victories in five matches, regardless of the outcome of the final tussle.

Aussies Break Even

GENOA, Italy, May 7.—Australia and Italy split even in the first two singles matches of their opening round Davis cup competition here Sunday.

Baron H. L. Demopurgo, of Italy, defeated Pat Crawford, young Australian star, but Gerald Patterson, veteran of the Anzac team, defeated Giorgio De Stefani, to square the series.

Crawford, somewhat indisposed, will not play in the doubles tomorrow. Hopmann will take his place.

German Heavyweight Stripped of Title

BERLIN, May 7.—The national boxing commission has stripped from Max Schmelling of the German heavyweight title he won by defeating Franz Diener on April 4.

The commission took this action because Schmelling, suffering from a fractured thumb, will be unable to defend the championship against Ludwig Haymann, university student challenger, on May 13, as scheduled. Diener has been substituted as Haymann's opponent with the title at stake.

DOROTHY DIX

Although Few Men Marry Geniuses, Every Husband Expects His Everyday Human Wife To Be a Combination Mind-Reader, Financial Wizard, Miracle Worker, Quick-Change Artist And Vamp — And, Miraculously, Many Are!

When the average young man marries the average girl he cherishes no delusions about her being a genius, or being possessed of any supernatural powers whatever. On the contrary, he perceives her limitations clearly enough, and he picks her out for a wife not because she is dear and sweet, and in some inexplicable way is just IT for him.

Nevertheless, as soon as he gets married he expects this ordinary commonplace, everyday human woman to be:

A mind-reader. He expects her to know that he still loves her, although he never mentions the state of his affections after the honeymoon, nor bestows a kiss or a caress upon her that are not so cold and perfunctory that they would register below zero if their temperature were taken.

He expects her to know that he still admires her and thinks that she is better looking than any of the flappers, although wild horses couldn't draw a compliment out of him, and he gives no indication of ever having taken a second look at her since their wedding day.

He expects her to know that when she shows him her new frock or hat and he growls out, "What another dress? My lord, woman, do you think you married Henry Ford? Don't you ever think of anything but clothes?" he isn't begrudging her the price of her finery, nor trying to keep her from buying more. He is just calling her attention to what a good provider he is, and reminding her of how thankful she should be for having got a husband who can doll her up like the Queen of Sheba.

He expects her to know, when he comes home with a face that looks like the wrath of God, and kicks the cat and spanks the baby and knocks the dinner and demands of Heaven to know why any man is fool enough to get married, and there is nothing personal in it. It is not because he regrets his own marriage, or has ceased to love his wife and adore his children and think his home the greatest place on earth. It is just because stocks have gone down, or things have gone wrong at the office, or he ate too many fried oysters for lunch.

He expects her to know even when he indulges in a little flirtation that it really doesn't mean anything at all, that he is just playing hookey like a small boy, and can't understand why his wife doesn't treat him like his mother used to do; spank him and kiss him and forgive him and forget it.

Next he expects his wife to be a FINANCIAL GENIUS. He expects her to make every dollar do the work of five, and to run a house and set a good table and clothe a family without running up bills.

He expects his wife to work some sort of a financial hocus pocus that will make rents cheap, and butchers hand out tenderloin at the price of rump steak, and keep children from wearing out their shoes, and cause new clothes to grow like feathers on the family backs, and generally to make the first of the month a time of rejoicing instead of a day of the gnashing of teeth and gloom and despair. And when wife doesn't turn out to be a Mellon or a Dawes in petticoats, he feels that he has got stung.

Next he expects his wife to be a miracle worker. He expects her to be able to turn herself into a parlor ornament or a kitchen utensil at a moment's notice. He expects her to spend next to nothing on her clothes and to be her own dressmaker and milliner, yet look like a daily hint from Paris. He expects her to do the cooking and washing and ironing for the family, and yet have her hands soft and white and beautifully manicured. He expects her to devote all of her time and thought and energy to her home, yet never to smell of the cooking, or hand out sterilized baby talk.

He expects her to look fresh and rosy after having been up all night with a sick child. He expects her to be as well dressed as the women in his office, though her allowance isn't a third of their salaries. He expects her to read and keep up with what is going on in the outside world, and to be a bright and entertaining talker who is up on all current topics and has a wide outlook on life, when he never takes her to any place of amusement, or gives her any chance to see things outside of the four walls of her home, and when she has to work about fourteen hours a day to keep her family comfortable, and the home a going concern.

Next he expects his wife to be a LIGHTNING-CHANGE artist, who can adapt her mood to his before you could say "scat." If he is tired and wants to spend the evening drowsing over pipe and paper, she must be willing to stay at home and keep the children quiet. But if he feels like stepping out she must be ready to grab her hat and go. If he wants to be talked to, she must have a nifty line of conversation with which to regale him, but if he is glum, she must be silent as the grave.

He expects her to be tickled to death if he remembers her birthday and not be silly enough to be hurt if he forgets it. He expects her to want to go to the places he wants to go, and not to drag him to the places he doesn't want to go. He expects her not to question the price when he is hungry and orders a lavish meal at a restaurant, and to be content with an ice-cream soda if he doesn't feel like eating. He expects her to be equally willing to go with him on a pleasure trip or to be left behind. He expects her never to go out of an evennig without him, but to be broad-minded enough to be willing for him to go without her.

Finally, every man expects his wife to be A VAMP and to continue to exercise her charms upon him. He doesn't feel it necessary to work himself to death keeping her fascinated and in love with him, but he expects her to keep his interest in her at fever heat. He feels that he has a perfect right to get fat and middle-aged and bald, but he expects her somehow to discover the fountain of perpetual youth, and remain young and slim and beautiful. Or, at least, he expects her to keep him hypnotized into believing that she is still a flapper.

And the queer part of it is that so many wives do come up to their husbands' expectations.

DOROTHY DIX.

FAIR GROUNDS AT SASKATOON SEA OF FLAMES

Exhibition Buildings Take Fire Early Monday Morning

SASKATOON, Sask., May 7—Causing damage, at present not estimated, but which will run into many thousands of dollars, fire swept through the exhibition grounds here this morning destroying the grand stand, the large administration building, five dining halls, the attractions platform, the racing judges' stand, the paddock and jockies' stand. The pari-mutuel booths were in the administration building.

The fire apparently broke out about two o'clock and by the time the alarm was telephoned in and the fire brigades, which had had scarcely an hour's rest over the week-end with running to smaller fires which were extraordinarily numerous, reached the scene, the structures were well alight and it was impossible to check the flames.

Grounds in Ruins

The result is that this morning the whole central part of the fair grounds is in ruins. By pouring streams of water on it as the fire raged in the grand stand nearby, fire fighters were able to save the provincial government building and the ladies' building, which is close to it.

The cause of the fire is unknown but it started in the grand stand and curiously enough spread to the administration building and the five dining halls, arranged in a half circle, against a strong wind.

S. W. Johns, secretary-manager of the fair, announced that steps would be taken immediately to replace the grand stand and other buildings in time for the summer fair this year, which takes place in the latter part of July. Before leaving the scene of the fire Mr. Johns announced that the fair directors would meet this morning at 10 o'clock to discuss insurance on the buildings and their replacement.

All the buildings burned were constructed of wood. Fireproof buildings will replace them and there will likely be a re-arrangement, Mr. Jones said.

AUTO BURNS; 4 DIE

LYNNFIELD CENTRE, Mass., May 7.—Four persons were burned to death here late Sunday when an automobile in which they were riding burst into flames after being struck by a Boston and Maine train at a crossing. The dead are Steven S. Maskas of Merrimac; Miss Pauline M. Kennedy, of Haverhill, her mother Mrs. Jos. A. Kennedy, her neice Virginia Follett, four years old.

B.C. Varsity Men Arrive in Windsor

WINDSOR, Ont., May 7.—Arriving here after their trip from the coast, the basketball quintet of British Columbia university, who will play in the dominion finals here tonight and Tuesday, as their opponents, were given a warm welcome Sunday afternoon by Mayor C. E. Jackson and more than two hundred citizens. The visiting team escorted by a squad of motorcycle officers with the mayor, members of the city council, board of education, chamber of commerce and several hundred citizens were taken to a hotel where they were tendered a civic reception.

RECORD CROWD

MONTREAL, May 7.—A new opening day attendance figure for the International league was established here on Saturday when 22,500 persons attended the Montreal Royal Reading clash, which marked the first local appearance of a Montreal team in class A baseball in twelve years. Incidentally, all previous attendance records for a sports event in this city were shattered.

NORMANDY TEAM BEATEN

HAVRE, France, May 7.—Playing inspired soccer Uruguay's 1924 Olympic champions, crashed a picked Normandy team, 8 to 1 Sunday.

Merger of Fishing Companies Approved

TORONTO, May 7.—Announcement was made on Saturday that the majority of shareholders of both British Columbia Fishing and Packing company, Limited, and Gosse Packing company, Limited, had expressed approval of the offer of exchange of their shares with Montreal Trust company to be exchanged for common shares of the new company.

The operations of the two former companies, therefore, which control more than fifty per cent. of the packing business in British Columbia, will be definitely amalgamated and will be controlled by the new company, British Columbia Packers Limited.

Prominent Lawyer Found Shot Dead

MINNEAPOLIS, May 7.—Werdell Hertig, 59, former president of the city council and a lawyer for 30 years, was found shot dead in his room at the Minneapolis Athletic club last night.

The body was on the bed, wrapped in a blanket. There were bloodstains on a window shade. A revolver from which two shots had been fired was found under some papers on the floor near the bed. One bullet had entered the ceiling.

Smashing the lock on the rear door, thieves broke into the refreshment booth owned by Joseph White at the South Side park over the week-end, but did not obtain anything of value.
